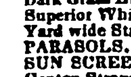
FAIR HAVEN. This elegant establishment will be open for the reception of visiters on and after Monday next, the 21st June. The proprietor having made considerable additions and improvements to the establishment, and having provided the same with everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visiters, feels the utmost confidence in recommending it as a very desirable summer retreat. Fair Haven is situated on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about 20 miles below the city of Annapolis; is remarkable healthy—the scenery beautiful and pleasant. (Strangers have said that the scenery alone was a sufficient inducement to visit the place.) The proprietor, ever anxious to accommodate the public, has determined to make such a reduction from his former rates, as will correspond with the present pressure of the times.



The Steamboat Patuxent will leave Baltimore every TUESDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, for Fair Haven, and return from thence in the evening. She will also leave Baltimore every THURSDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, and will land passengers at Fair Haven on her route to the Patuxent; and will return thence on SUNDAY, touching at Fair Haven. Persons availing themselves of the conveyance to visit Fair Haven only, will not be subject to any charge returning.

CASH FOR NEGROES.

THE HIGHEST PRICES will at all times be given for NEGROES of both sexes, that are slaves for life, and good titles. My office is in PRATT STREET, No. 85, between Sharp and Howard streets, where myself or my Agent, (Mr. J. M. WILSON,) can be seen at all times. All persons, having Negroes to sell, would do well to see me before they dispose of them, as I am always buying and forwarding to the New Orleans market. I will also receive and keep Negroes at twenty-five cents each, per day, and forward them to any Southern port, at the request of the owner. My establishment is large, comfortable and airy, and all above ground; and kept in complete order, with a large yard for exercise; and is the strongest and most splendid building of the kind in the United States. And as the character of my house and yard is so completely established, for strength, comfort and cleanliness, and it being a place where I keep all my own, I will not be accountable, for the future, for any escapes of any kind from my establishment.
