THE VERY BEST

FAMILY NEWSPAPER

IN THE UNITED STATES.

COMMENCEMENT OF A NEW VOLUME, ON SATURDAY, JUNE 26th.

THE OCEAN
AND BALTIMORE WEEKLY CLIPPER
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
By BULL & TUTTLE,
AT ONLY $1.50 PER ANNUM.

IS one of the CHEAPEST and BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPERS now published. It contains nothing but select READING matter—advertisements being altogether excluded. It is made up from the columns of the DAILY CLIPPER, comprising all the current NEWS of the week, TALES, POETRY, &c. &c. embracing a greater variety of interesting reading than can be found in any other newspaper publication of the same dimensions, in the United States. The paper is carefully mailed EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, and sent to subscribers in every part of the Union. Subscriptions $1.50 per annum—$1.00 for six months, always payable in advance. In no case will the paper be sent for a longer period than paid for.

The proprietors could fill a column with the most flattering notices of this publication, from different parts of the country—they merely give the following to show the general opinion:

The Philadelphia Spirit of the Times says—"Its arrangement is calculated to please the eye of taste, and when we say that its matter is the articles of the Clipper, we have said enough in the way of eulogy. We are only surprised that such a paper can be afforded at $1.50 per annum."

The Hanover Herald says—"To any one desirous of subscribing for an excellent weekly paper in Baltimore, we would recommend the above. It is published at $1.50 per annum, if paid in advance, and goes ahead of any other publication in the city."

The St. Louis Gazette says—"It is one of the handsomest and best filled sheets which we receive, and we recommend the Ocean to the patronage of those who wish to subscribe for a Baltimore paper."

The Richmond Compiler says—"It is a very handsome and cheap paper, and contains a great variety of interesting matter. We have seen nothing in its way got up with more neatness."

The Juniata Aurora says—"It corresponds well with its title, for it does contain oceans of news."

The Susquehanna Advocate says—"It is an elegant sheet, containing a vast deal of interesting and valuable intelligence, and promises to be prolific in racy originals as the daily ever proved to be."

The New York Atlas says—"The only fault we find with it is its cheapness. Such a mass of choice and valuable reading for $1.50 a year, is rather more than "dog cheap!"

The St. Louis Pennant says—"The Ocean is a neat and tasteful weekly paper, which vies with any, in point of piquancy and interest, now published any where."

The St. Louis Argus says—"It is printed in elegant style, and as to the matter, it is enough to say that it is equal to the Clipper."

The Columbia Spy says—"It is really a good thing, and has 'oceans of news,' &c. and will amply repay the price of subscription."

The above notices will suffice—the proprietors offer the paper to the public upon its own merits. It has been published but twelve months, and every number has brought an increase of subscribers.

☞ All letters must be addressed (post paid) to
BULL & TUTTLE,
No. 7 N. Gay street, Baltimore, Md.

N. B. Single copies of the Ocean and Weekly Clipper can always be had at the Office, with or without wrappers—price 6¼ cents. je23 d

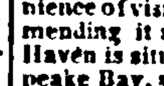
FAIR HAVEN. This elegant establishment will be open for the reception of visiters on and after Monday next, the 21st June. The proprietor having made considerable additions and improvements to the establishment, and having provided the same with everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visiters, feels the utmost confidence in recommending it as a very desirable summer retreat. Fair Haven is situated on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about 20 miles below the city of Annapolis; is remarkable healthy—the scenery beautiful and pleasant. (Strangers have said that the scenery alone was a sufficient inducement to visit the place.) The proprietor, ever anxious to accommodate the public, has determined to make such a reduction from his former rates, as will correspond with the present pressure of the times.



The Steamboat Patuxent will leave Baltimore every TUESDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, for Fair Haven, and return from thence in the evening. She will also leave Baltimore every THURSDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, and will land passengers at Fair Haven on her route to the Patuxent; and will return thence on SUNDAY, touching at Fair Haven. Persons availing themselves of the conveyance to visit Fair Haven only, will not be subject to any charge returning.

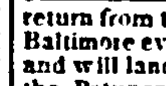
FOR ANNAPOLIS.
PLEASURE EXCURSION.



The fine steamboat BOSTON will make an EXCURSION to ANNAPOLIS, on THURSDAY EVENING 24th inst., leaving Light-st. wharf at 3 o'clock, and will return to the city by half past 10 o'clock, the same evening, without fail. She will be accompanied by MURRAY'S celebrated BAND; also, his favourite COTILLION BAND.—Supper will be provided at the Annapolis Hotel, arrangements having been made with them to that effect.

Tickets 50 cts. and tickets admitting a gentleman and two ladies, $1. Children, half price.

The Boat will stop at Kerr's wharf, Fells' Point, going and returning.

Owing to the Boston being advertised to go to Annapolis on Thursday last, and another boat having been sent in her place, it may be proper to state that the Boston will certainly go as advertised above. Tickets for the Excursion may be had at the Rappahannock Ticket Office, and H. W. Bool's etc. je22-3t

PLEASURE EXCURSION.

STEAMBOAT COLUMBIA. This splendid Steamboat will leave Commerce street wharf at half past 2 o'clk, P. M. on THURSDAY, 24th inst. She will proceed down the Chesapeake Bay as far as Annapolis and return before 9 o'clock in the evening.

Both going and returning she will call at Kerr's whf. Fell's Point. There will be Martial and Cotillion Music by Capt. Roundtree's Band. SUPPER will be prepared on Board for those who wish it, at 37½ cents. Tickets 50 cents, children 25 cents—to be procured at the office, Commerce st. wharf. je21-4t

PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS of the BIBLE, and Views in the Holy Land.—This most valuable and popular work, which has gone through nine editions since November last, is published by Mr Robert Sears, of New York, and compiled from the "London Pictorial Bible," a work in the highest repute, and which sells in this country for from $18 to $25. It contains 400 pages, embracing 200 engravings, most of them by the old masters, representing sacred historical events mentioned in the Old and New Testaments, with full and interesting letterpress descriptions, devoted to an explanation of the objects mentioned in the Sacred Text, and is sold for the low price of $2. It is entirely free from all sectarianism, and is recommended in the highest terms by clergymen and papers or all denominations. It is interesting to people of every age, but especially so to the young, in whom it is peculiarly adapted to create and promote a taste for the study of the Bible, and is therefore emphatically a Family Book.

Wanted immediately several active and thorogoing Agents to procure subscribers for the above work in this city and vicinity on liberal commission. Enquire at the American and Virginia Temperance Hotel Pratt street, for L. FIELD, General Agent. e22-3t*
