AMERICAN THEATRE—FRONT-ST.

MR. WALTON'S BENEFIT.

THOS. J. WALTON, in announcing his BENEFIT at this establishment for THURSDAY, 1st July, 1841, most respectfully and earnestly solicits the support and patronage of his friends and the public generally, sincerely hoping that the exertions he has made at various times, through a period of some years, to conduce to the amusement of Baltimoreans, may be deemed worthy of their consideration in this (perhaps his last) appeal to their kindness. On this occasion will be presented, for the first time in this city, a beautiful version of the drama of

IVANHOE; Or, THE MAID OF INDAH.

Which has been prepared with great care and labor, and will be produced under the immediate superintendance of Mr. JOSEPH FOSTER, in a style of splendor never yet surpassed in any theatre. In the course of the piece, will be given a very vivid picture of the GRAND TOURNAMENT at Ashby-de-la-Zouch, so beautifully and graphically described by Sir Walter Scott, a great variety of entertainments—particulars of which will be given in future advertisements. je23-3t

COLD SPRING HOTEL.

THIS DELIGHTFUL PLACE, situated 3 miles out of Baltimore, on the York Turnpike, the pleasantest road and finest scenery leading from the city. The house is large and airy, finished and furnished in the best manner to accommodate Boarders and Select Parties. The Garden affords the most choice Fruits, Flowers, and Vegetables. Below the garden is a Cottage, the Cold Spring, Fish Pond and Ice Pond, with its gravelled walks and green shades, which makes the scenery the most picturesque imaginable. To strangers visiting the city, Cold Spring is a most desirable place to while away a day or an hour.

N. B. Lovers of Strawberries and Cream, Raspberries and Cherries, will find them here in their purity.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK—Office 28 North Gay street near Fayette—And Ladies' American Magazine, Mrs. S. J. Hale and Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, editors. Miss E. Leslie a contributor to each number.

The present volume commences with two steel Engravings by A. L. Dick.

Sunday Morning, and the Sale of the Pet Lamb—also, a beautiful colored Fashionable Plate.

This is an outlay for embellishments unprecedented in this or any other country. The great beauty of the pictures will give pleasure to every lover of the beautiful, and it shall always be our aim to procure such subjects for the engraver as will, even without the poetical illustration, tell their own tale. While thus giving attention to that which pleases the eye, we will show that equal attention has been paid to catering for the mind. Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, who has lately returned from Europe, has made such arrangements as will ensure us a supply of articles from the best female writers of England, Mary Russell Mitford, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Maria Edgeworth—(their first contributions to an American periodical)—will each contribute to the Ladies' American Magazine; from the two last we now have articles on hand.

The Hon. Mrs. Norton will also be a contributor. While from abroad we are receiving such assistance as will serve to make an agreeable variety, we must not forget to mention that we are now publishing an article from an eminent writer of our own country—the author of "Losing and Winning," and "Sensibility." This tale we are certain will cause as great a sensation as did the publishing of "Losing and Winning," which was republished in half the papers of our country. Let it not be forgotten that Miss Leslie contributes to the Lady's Book only. ☞No other magazine has articles from her pen.☜ She commences in this number another of those graphic sketches that give so much pleasure to our readers—"Leonilla Lynmore." While paying a proper tribute to the great talents of the English ladies—ladies previously mentioned—be it remembered that we have our own Hale, Sigourney, Leslie, Parsons, Embury, Hentz, and a host of others, to mention which we have neither time nor space.

Terms—Only three dollars a year, or 25 cents per number—payable on delivery. Office of the Lady's Book at WM. N. HARRISON'S Literary Rooms, No. 28 N. Gay street, near Fayette-st.

N. B. Due Notice will be given of the arrival of the July Number. je26-tf FAIR HAVEN. This elegant establishment will be open for the reception of visiters on and after Monday next, the 21st June. The proprietor having made considerable additions and improvements to the establishment, and having provided the same with everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visiters, feels the utmost confidence in recommending it as a very desirable summer retreat. Fair Haven is situated on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about 20 miles below the city of Annapolis; is remarkable healthy—the scenery beautiful and pleasant. (Strangers have said that the scenery alone was a sufficient inducement to visit the place.) The proprietor, ever anxious to accommodate the public, has determined to make such a reduction from his former rates, as will correspond with the present pressure of the times.

The Steamboat Patuxent will leave Baltimore every TUESDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, for Fair Haven, and return from thence in the evening. She will also leave Baltimore every THURSDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, and will land passengers at Fair Haven on her route to the Patuxent; and will return thence on SUNDAY, touching at Fair Haven. Persons availing themselves of the conveyance to visit Fair Haven only, will not be subject to any charge returning.

DAVIES'

FAMILY ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THESE VALUABLE PILLS are very gentle in their operations, causing neither pain nor griping, nor any nauseous sickness. They exceedingly comfort and strengthen the stomach and bowels, and clear the sight, senses, hearing, and memory, of aged persons, by carrying off phlegms, watery matter; putrid, gross, and thick humours from the Stomach, Bowels, and Blood which makes them so celebrated for removing Coughs, Rheumatism, Pains from the Body and Limbs, Gravel, Piles, Sick Stomach, Disordered Bowels, and Worms.

Mrs. C. Burton, near Locust street, was diseased for seven years with a lump in the left side, bumps all over her skin, pains around the small of her back running into the stomach, which prevented her (to use her own words,) from eating one particle of meat; the first dose removed the lump, and two boxes set her at liberty.

Sold by G. Savage, General Agent for Washington. J. Thomas, and Mrs. Banks Georgetown; W. G. Cole, Hatter, and J. Brunner, Frederick; S. Church, Alexandria; J. Demuth, York; J. Turpin, No. 34 Fayette-st.; and by T. MOORE, No. 71 Market street, General Agent for Baltimore. Price 25 cents per box, five for $1, or $2 per dozen. je23

CITY COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, June 8th, 1841.

THE CITY COLLECTOR earnestly requests all persons who design to settle their respective accounts during the month, to do so as speedily as possible.

The public will see the necessity of complying with this request when they are informed that nearly all the receipts in this office, are in rail-road orders, the counting of which, requires much time and may tend to prevent many who postpone the payment of their taxes to the last few days of the month from availing themselves of the benefit of the law.

All bills paid on or before the first day of July shall be entitled to a discount of 5 per cent.

JNO. B. SEIDENSTRICKER, je11 dt30thJe City Collector.
