State Rights -The besaties of "Bla Rights, have been frequently shown duting the war of the rebellion; it would on severe occusions have broken out in open cont between the Governors of several of Htates of the "Confederacy" and Jeff. Davis had not a common danger menaced them from outside. "And it only proves that the boasted right of "secession" would soon fill the whole Bouth with anarchy and confusion, if they could obtain an acknowlegment of their ladependence. At every beated Presdettis! election, the right would be claimed and exercised by the demagogues who would continually be appearing on the stage, whenever
