PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR BUILDING AND EQUIPPING TWO FIRST CLASS AND TWO SECOND CLASS LIGHT-VESSELS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
Washington City, July 11th, 1864.

Separate sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 m., on Saturday, the 13th of August, 1864, for building and equipping two first class light vessels to the following dimensions:

Length from after side of stem post to the fore side of main stem, 88 feet; breadth of beam, moulded, 23 feet 6 inches; depth of hold from top of lumber strake to top of beam, 10 feet 6 inches; tonnage about 150.

Also for building and equipping two second class light-vessels of the following dimensions:

Length between perpendiculars, 81 feet 6 inches; breadth of beam, moulded, twenty-one inches; depth of hold from top of lumber strake to top of beam, 10 feet 6 inches; tonnage about 130.

The white oak to be of the best sea-coast timber, and the yellow pine of the finest grain and purest southern timber. The printed specifications by which the vessels are to be constructed, and which will, with the drawings and plans, be attached to and form a part of the contracts, can be had on application to the Light-house Board, Boston, New York, or Philadelphia, at which places, also, the plans and drawings may be seen and examined.

The Board reserves the right to reject any proposals or to give bids to responsible parties who may not bid for the entire number of the vessels called for by this advertisement, and no contract will be considered binding unless it shall have been approved by the Hon secretary of the Treasury. No proposal will be received or considered, unless from persons engaged in ship building, and each bid must be accompanied by the signatures of two responsible persons as sureties for the faithful fulfilment of the contract.

Each vessel must be distinctly specified, with the sum for which the bidder proposes to build and equip her according to the drawings and specifications, and a copy of the printed specifications must be enclosed by each bidder, as evidence that there is no mistake as to the object of his proposal.

A drawing of the vessel contracted for will be furnished to the contractor, to which he will be required to adhere strictly, in that the general lines will be taken off and the mould examined by the superintending officer, who will be assigned to the duty by this Board, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury; and he will be required to see that the work executed and the materials used are in strict conformity to the terms and specifications of the contract, and who must certify to the same in writing, before the vessel will be received, and payments authorized to be made.

Persons making proposals to build any of these light vessels may suggest any change or alterations by which the cost will be lessened, without injuring its strength and usefulness, and in making such suggestions the precise charge or of the change or alteration will be named, with the increase saved thereby. The proposals for each vessel will state the time required to complete the vessel and equip it, the manufacturing profits of such place and the bid. All proposals must be sealed and endorsed, "Proposals for building Light-vessel No.," when enclosed in another sealed envelope, and addressed to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington, D. C.

No bid will be considered that does not conform to the requirements of this advertisement, nor any one whose bid is received after the hour named, and witness the opening of the bids at the time and place hereinbefore specified.

By order of the Light-house Board

LIFE ELEMENT, IRON,
Infusing STRENGTH, VIGOR and NEW LIFE into all parts of the system.

One of the most Distinguished Jurists in New England writes to a friend as follows:

"I have tried the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and the result fully sustains your prediction. SEQUEL TO THE HERMIT AND DUCK.

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

Time rolled along like the brook by the deer,
And the boy grew up to a man;
Now the Hermit had promised him often before
To take him to Baltimore then.

So one morning when fall Indian summer's deep haze
O'er the forest all stripped of its leaves,
And the sun looked aloft like a world in a blaze,
And the wind gently moaned of its griefs;

The hermit and youth started Baltimoreward,
While the fresh-hearted youth in delight
Runs ahead and then back o'er the moss-covered sward,
Till he's weary and feet-sore at night.

The first thing they saw when they entered the street
Was a lady in full walking dress,
With a smile on her face most bewitchingly sweet,
That seemed barking in each raven tress.

"What is that," said the youth, "is an angel I know,"
This is just what we've got there'll good luck [illegible]
"Now don't be a fool," said the hermit, "I trow
"Your angel is only a duck."

"Oh! we'll take a pair home," said the youth with delight,
"Let me catch it and put its sleek head,
What a wonderful for a bonnet as she caressed with affright,
What a wonderful he said as she fled.

The duck "in good order" "fell back" very fast,
And the youth still kept up the chase,
Till he reached No. 60 West Baltimore street,
and he saw it "the Bard" of the place.

For you see the lady ran into MARBLE HALL to claim protection, and the youth followed in his innocent pursuit. Messrs. SMITH BROS.
explained to the youth his mistake, and gave him a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHING to buy him off. He has since given up chasing ducks and gone to writing "Machine poetry" for Messrs.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE CITY, May Term, 1864.—Martha E. Foshay and others vs. Thomas Cain and Martha McAleese. The object of this writ is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in the city of Baltimore. It also sets forth that Martha E. Foshay, Sarah E. Cain as the widow and Mary A. Hill and Martha McAleese as the children of Richard McAleese, deceased, are entitled to an undivided moiety of said real estate, and that James E. Cain became entitled to the other undivided moiety thereof, and died intestate. Cain died sometime in the year 1857 intestate and without issue, leaving his father's brother, the said Thomas Cain, his only surviving heir at law; that it is not known whether the said Thomas Cain is living or dead, nor whether, if dead, he has left any heirs; that said real estate cannot be divided without loss or injury to the parties concerned, and that a sale thereof would be to the interest and advantage of all parties. It is thereupon, this 12th day of June, 1864, adjudged and ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Baltimore once in each of four successive weeks before the THIRTEENTH DAY OF JULY, 1864, give notice to said Thomas Cain, if living, or to his heirs at law, if he be dead, or the object and substance of this bill and warn him or them to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the FIFTEENTH DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT, to answer the premises, and show cause, if any he or they may have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
