WM. WALES,

" The Bederal Union, it Mark to Proserved." BALTIMORE.

MONDAY, JULY 25, 1864.

THE REDUC PRESS AND THE "RAID."-The article we copy from a Richmond paper, on the results of the late raid by Brecklarige into Maryland, displays quite a different feeling of being alluded to by our papers. from that which was recently manifested by them before the rebels began their backward march. When they hear of the terrific har. rawings which their troops have had to bear ] on their retreat, by the operations of Hunter, Averi'l, M'Crook and other of our officers, they will writbe with still greater pain. Many a poor fellow who left his home with the prombe of bringing back with him a watch or gown, or a pair of shoes for his wife, which he was premised by Johnson, Breckinsidge & Oo, will have bitten the dast on the way with his twist plunder, or be lodged ins [Yankee ] prison to spend his leisure moments until his master Jeff is thrashed out of his conceit of estabilishing a new Confederacy. How doleful reads the Richmond journal

How many of them. and how much of their booty, will ever reach Richmond again, we hope the editors of the rebai capital will in due time advise us.

NORTH CAROLINA-THE PRACE PARTY .-They have a "peace" party at the Scath, as well as at the North, and it is very clear that but it has now become the opinion of citizens the oligarobs at Richmond are alarmed at the prospects of its success in the election for Governor, to be held in August in North Carolina. Mr. Holden, the candidate of the ' l'eace' men, was a leading politician of to a caused by their approach to Rockvilla. Yes march towards Washington- and this, too, right in the face of the fact, that our troops were then in Yirginia, in pursuit of the rebels who lately were in the State. The latest in larmer, who, after the buriel of his wife, tolligence received at Washington yesterday, gives us the information, that "an officer | exclaimed, "Down wil another shillin', or up connected with the Quartermaster's Depart- | she comes!" ment, who arrived here at soon from Edwards' Ferry, reports no rebels (except probably a few guerillas) in that neighborhood, or this side of the Blue Ridge. He confirms the fact that the farmers about Rockville are scared for some cause or other, and are seereting their stock; but he could not see hear of anything to cause any apprehension of a return of the raiders."

The Richmond papers gave a report, said to be brought by a deserter, (but which they discredited.) of the death of Gen.
