National Union Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT: ADRAMAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. FOR VICE PASSIDENT: ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessee.

THE COMING PRESIDENTIAL CON-

TEST. The time for the Presidential election is a rapidly approaching, and we would remind our readers here, that everything indicates that the battle to be fought in favor of the Union is likely to be a hard one. The oppo eltion to war measures, and consequently, We owe it to the honor of the State, to the ley, and, more than all, to arrest Grant's opto these who support them, is being marshalled under the lead of every bad element of seing of our children, to all that is dear or of the ravenous and disappointed Buchanan Democracy, and anxious for aid to regain favor by any means however treacherous and disreputable, there will be found arrayed in their ranks everything that savors of sym pathy with treason, in the whole land.

And it will not matter, either, how incom gruous are the materials brought into requition to build up a party, such as will let M. Jefferson Davis and his blood stained gark out of a tight place Already, we see state ing side by side, those who would. licaro Mr. Lincoln because he does not go for the war earnestly enough, and those who repro time to look on them with bitter hate.

could hardly look with patience upon the lernment, that its securities are at last the test "Orittenden Compromise," or tolerate the of bank values, and will be so to the end. prolonging the war.

have been the sensations of the people o Winter Davis suddenly shown blmself in altiance with that "Peace party" which at that time sprung up here like a mushroom, to perare the "Peace" men of the present time, the Woodees and Valandinghams in any wise im proved? that the Representative from the Third District should seek to make the pecple here favor an alliance with themagainst Mr. Lincoln, at least should attempt to "play

Into their hands " Let us exquire further, how much better, o: worse, Vallandigham is to-day, than when he made his appearance at the Eutaw House, along with the guilty traitor, Breckinridge to try to wheedle the peo'le of Maryland to the support of Jeff Davie? And if the Hon. Henry May was repusiated by the people of the State, because of assuming a position so palpably in alliance with those who were hos tile to the Government and the Administa tion, will the patriotic here look on the neattempt of his successor in Congress to form an alliance with or to "aid and abet" the Obio traitor and his friends with any more patience or toleration?

The truth is, the people of Maryland should at once arouse themselves, and enquire whaare the duties that devolve upon them in the most important crisis that has occurred site the war bigun. The issue is already mad Waich calls upon them anew to take side with their country; to newly marshal their ranks for the coming fight, and to see that no treachery under the guisa of an assumed in dignant patriotism, misleads them to be duped and rulaid. There will be no excuse for taking the wrong step in this case. For three years, now, the Administration has been almost as much worried, the Governmen been almost as much imperilled by bas traiwrs, disappointed political aspirants in the loyal Brates, as it has been by those in the other section, who have tracked their way with gore, in the attempt to destroy the republic, to blot out the nationality. Th election of a "Peace" candidate over those two tried champions of the people-Lincol: and Andy Johnson-means everything of evil that the most fertile imagination can suggest. It means a country severed and consigned to those who in their mad pursuit of power, in the pocket, and at a low price, it should be have already betrayed it to bloodshed and within reach of every person. logs, unparalelled in the history of nations.-It means that if the traitors of the South, it / to give up the conflict temporarily, that the composition. nation is to be humbled before the world; by the North; and the gallant dead who now Building. rest from their sacrifices and labors, to be stigmatized as dupes who died for naught.

Pointing to the first, we have the utter refu-Isal of the Bouthern traitors to again come linto the Union, meaning perpetual battle, a border drenched with blood, and the disinte gration of Biates; and, pointing to the second rested and placed under bonds of $3,000 to Southern leaders invited to put their feet tup m our necks, with the remembrances of three years of conflict to stimulate their vin- home on the 4th instant by the Provest Mardictive oppression and hate.

Then we say, sgain, now is the time to aswly arrange our line of battle for the great political conflict close at hand. Our enemies their lines. vie active, some of our so-called friends are (diding with the enemy. We are fully warned) of how much hangs upon the result—we must take sides with the country or against it.-The very first thing to be done, is to see -here each prominent man stands; to make eclaration of principles such as none can I mistake, and to drive from our ranks all who are in alliance with the enemy. THE SITUATION IN THE BHENANDOAR VAL-LET .- General Early is in full retreat up the Shenandosh Valley.
