National Union Mominations.

FOR PRESIDENT: ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessee.

The anomaly is presented in Maryland at sentions. But as we must insist—the first completeness with which, as a people we will be anomaly is presented in Maryland at THE UNFORTUNATE POLITICAL the present time, the oddity, of a party which ought to be as one, divided, and presenting ro uncertain a front to a common enemy, that to a good degree its usefulness is paralyzed, and its assailants encouraged so as to be absolutely claic in their hopes of triumpb. In delineating this condition of things, this chameful predicament in which a great and patriotic mijority romebow finds itself, we intend to speak out plainly; to "talk out in a school," so that if possible these disabilities may be corrected, and the glorious cause of a the Union not meet that deplorable—that ignominious fate, of being wounded-stabbed to death "in the house of its friends."

In dealing with this matter, too, we propose-if possible-to make no invidious remarks calculated to wound the true lovers and supporters of a great caute. The object | of all ought to be harmony; concert of action; a thorough banding together of forces against found interest, because, if the State is not an inordinate just for power would betray the country to ceaseless contacts and utter rnin, and if there are others who choose to why it will be only the truth that burts, it Union, none can doubt. missions must be made from the deposits. I SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, Offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U.S. Notes considers that it is payty and families who are occupied by business try, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in Government securities

> It is equally convenient as a temporary or perminent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as colla'erals for discounts.

Convertible into a Six per cent. 5-20 Gold Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds 18 not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war Experience of a high private in the rear rank | the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was during the last rebel raid in Maryland, and other over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation.

But aside from all the advantages we have On MONDAY MORNING next, August 221, at | enumerated, a special Act of Consress exempts all 10 o'clock, at No. 3; Bank street, corner of Spring, | bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On TEA, SUGAR, COFFEE, Statch, Blue, Spices | the average, this exemption is worth about two of all kinds. Brooms, Buckets, Rope, Soap, Can- per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country."

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of to | all the obligations of the United States.

While the Government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the peo; le. Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the officer receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Depart-
