National Union Nominations.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessee. THE NEED OF RECONCILING PARTY

DIVISIONS IN THE STATE. In our last usene, we took occasion to dwell h upon some of the difficulties which exist detrimental to the harmony and usefulness of Union organizations in the State; differences which ought to be arranged without delay, in order to give the Union candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency the most unwavering support. Transcending in magnitude all other questions, as the question of the Presidency does, because the enemies of the Government and of the Union have insisted that upon that depends the prosecution of the war, the true Union men of the land have no alternative left but to accept the for peace, on the score of pity for deluded great issue, and by one more united and determined effort, forever extinguish the hopes of Mr. Jefferson Davis and his armed adherents. Active, unscrupulous, and determined as are the opponents of the present Executive, albeit they as yet present to the eye but a beterogenous and disorganized mass, they Who doubts but that, already, they feel it to have, at least, the bond of a common hatred | be a bad investment; that however he may to things as they are, to inspire them; and they hope that however wide may be the differences which distract them, at present, that in a brief period they may form some kind of front, capable of warranting a vigorous assault to gain power.

Its Exemption from State or Hunicipal Taxation. But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Conaress exempts all bonds and Treasury actes from local texetion. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country. It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States. While the Government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patri-
