National Union Nominations. FOR PRESIDENT: ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennesses.

THE WEEKLY CLIPPER. will be ready for delivery at our counter this morning, put up in wrappers for mailing, ready to be forwarded to the country. This week's rumber will be found extremely in- | 4836:to:esting, containing the particulars of the battles at Petersburg; the affairs at Mobile and Atlants; the correspondence relative to the treason plots in Indians; the proceedings of the State Convention; the general news of the day, lacinding foreign advices, editorials, markets, local news, &c.

THE INTERESTS OF LABOR IN THE FUTURE OF MARYLAND.

It should cheer the heart of every citizen o Maryland to know, that notwithstanding the terrible ordeal the State has been called upon | rate and determined action - an earnest and to encounter, the future was never so full of promise. 1', as the consequence of a war provoked by the Gulf States for their own selbish purposes, we have lest an inferior grade necessary to state the fact that up to meon of labor, the cridence accumulates from day on Tuesday there were over minima inousand to day that that loss is soon to be made up to | scapiess returned to the Assistant Provest us a thousand fold, by the immigration hither of that skilled, that superior labor, which elsewhere has been the prime instrumentality in the fermation and development of great | the United States. At this rate, if but asbort

In this view of the case, it is time for every resident here, every one who takes an interest in the progress of the community in population, wealth and intelligence, to "let the dead bury their dead;" to discard forever those old issues and grounds of difference about a now obsolete "institution," which still indulged, regiment, is gathering to his standard in this may prevent that unity of purpose and concert of action, which may result in setting us back years still in the path of progress. Slavery is dead! dead in Maryland, at least, so far as it is ever to be of practical use sgain; and it will not do, merely for the sake of nursing old desires or feelings in the direction of vindictive ness, to postpone action calculated to at once | the ranks of other organizations. The adapt the State to the new life upon which i must inevitably enter. Travel through any of the counties now, which before the was were in possession of the largest number of contrabands, and the most casual observation will make it manifest that there is an immerse vacancy to be filled by immigration from some quarter, and that hardly ever were inducements so tempting offered to any of the human race in want of desirable homes.

Let it be noted that even under the old order of things, there was vast room in the Btate, especially in the lower counties, for additional numbers. To a considerable extent the old method in vogue all over the South of first clearing and then measurably exhausting the soil with heavy crops of tobacco, corn, etc., to afterwards "turn it out" or abandon it, was in vogue: and so it is that the traveller leisurely wending his way through these once fertile and cultivated districts, is has by this sime so strengthened his position the BARRICADES of 1863 are notified to present rapidly decaying homesteads, now abandoned to the owls and the bats, the fields in like manner being given over to neglect, to a growth of stunted pines and weeds.

But the best of it, in these cases, is, that with proper pains and the outlay of a little capital, these places might soon be redeemed from desolation and decay, to become the homes of a thriving and excellent population; of those whose labors would contribute rapidly to the advancement of the State. We need not question, either, too closely, those causes | service at 70,000 men. which have contributed in the past to drive from the commonwealth those who should have remained to develop its resources. Buffice it that the lands are now vacant, in addition to thousands of acres more recently bereft of the colored labor of the State, and recognizing the great fact, why should any now be content to fold their hands and quarrel with political events, when the business of all should be, by the quickest method, to repair damages, by replacing the abscending population with those who will gladly emigrate hither, once advised of the real condition of things in the State?

It does not, let us remember, take a treatise on political economy to prove that labor is the true foundation of all really great com- | 45 Burke street, Canton. monwealths, in this age. He who is so chamored of his prejudices, who is so bent on yielding nothing, because events have of late outrun his calculations of what is right or proper, is not the one to aid the State in her extremity now. We must take things as they are. Aware of what skilled labor has done in building up cities and towns, shipyards, foundries and factories elsewhere, we must invite it hither; we must, besides directing it to the building up of commercial greatness and trade, see, also, if we cannot with it make our "deserts blossom as the rose."

But once mere. This matter will not, unaided, work out its own results. An effort was made during the sitting of the last Legis. lature to establish a "Bureau of Immigration," an agency which should set forth to] people abroad the advantages of settling here, and afford them needed facilities for doing so. I may want goods in their line. They sell at The endeavor failed; but that is one good small profits, and deal on the square with everyreason why every public spirited citizen of the body. PERSSYLVANIA GETTING OUT OF THE DEAFT. - It is gratifying to learn, as we do from the following article in the Harrisburg Telegraph, that the Old Keystone State is coming up manfully to the belp of the ration. 30,000 of her quota has already been turned over to the Provost Marshal of the State, and the likelihood is, that nearly all of the bal ages will be forthcoming by the 6th of Beptember. The Harrisburg Telegraph of Thursday

"There never was a time since the preci-I tation I the slave-holders' rebellion that re cruiting was more steadily, systematically and successfully carried on in Pennsylvania, than at the present. The first great excitement at the beginning of the war brought of a mighty army by a sort of impulsive and Aildly enthusiastic uprising. The difference between that movement and the proceedings attending the present filling up of the quote of Pennsylvania, is that men are rushing to arms fully impressed with the nature of the service they are to endure, and fully under standing the dangers through which they are to pair. This is a movement of calm, delibe deep feeling of resolve to put an end to the glave helders' rebelilon in the very shurtest possible time. To show the success of the recruiting throughout the country, it is only Marshal Generals in the Eastern and Western Departments of the State, by the different Provost Marshals of this Commonwealth as having been mustered into the service of time were afforded the people beyond that fixed for the draft, the entire State could fill lie anota of the five hundred thousand men. The character of the men entering the service, too, is of the highest essential in the requirements of a soldier. The larger portion have already seen service under fire, and hence may be fairly regarded as veterans. Capt. MINERAL WATER. This is the most elegant drink we know of. WM. H. READ has fitted up, at great expense, a most magnificent Mineral Water Fountain. The syrups are all made of the pure, fresh juice of the fruit; the water is always icy cold, and generated in pure porcelain jountains; thus making it one of the most attractive places in the city. We would like the readers of the Clipper to call and see, or rather taste, for themselves. Remember, 147 Baltimore street, one door from Calvert.
