

DAILY CLIPPER.

Wm. WALES, Publisher.

MONDAY, AUG. 29, 1864.

[Reported for the Baltimore Clipper.]

MARYLAND CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

ANNAPOLIS, Aug. 27, 1864.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock—Present, Hon. H. H. Goldsborough, President, and 25 members.

On motion of Mr. Hatch it was entered upon the journal that he had been present on Friday he would have voted against the section of Judiciary...

Adjournment of the Convention—Mr. Abbott submitted a resolution which lies over under the name of the Committee on the Judiciary Department...

Apprenticeship of Negroes—Mr. Anderson offered a section, to be added to the article on the 'Orphan's' Court...

Detention in Slavery—Mr. Stillinger submitted the following resolution: 'Resolved, That any person who shall after the adoption of this Constitution shall have gone into effect, detain in slavery any person...

The following, proposed by Mr. Thomas, was adopted: 'Resolved, That there shall be in the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit four courts, to be styled the Superior Court of Baltimore City, the Superior Court of Baltimore County, the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County, the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County, and the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County...

Section 27. There shall be in the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit four courts, to be styled the Superior Court of Baltimore City, the Superior Court of Baltimore County, the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County, the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County, and the Superior Court of Baltimore City and County...

Section 28. The Superior Court of Baltimore City shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 29. The Superior Court of Baltimore County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 30. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 31. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 32. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 33. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 34. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 35. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 36. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 37. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 38. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 39. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 40. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 41. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 42. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 43. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 44. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 45. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 46. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 47. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 48. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 49. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 50. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 51. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 52. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 53. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 54. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 55. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 56. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 57. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 58. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 59. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 60. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 61. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 62. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 63. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 64. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 65. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 66. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 67. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 68. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 69. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 70. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 71. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 72. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 73. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 74. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 75. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 76. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 77. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 78. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 79. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 80. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 81. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 82. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 83. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 84. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 85. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 86. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 87. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 88. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 89. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 90. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 91. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 92. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 93. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 94. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 95. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 96. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 97. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 98. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 99. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

Section 100. The Superior Court of Baltimore City and County shall have jurisdiction over all suits where the debt or damages claimed, or the value of the interest, shall exceed one hundred dollars...

LOCAL NEWS.

Court Cases.—Charles C. Nierren was arrested on Saturday night, charged with beating Frank Stuffer. He was released on bail for court by Justice Duncan. John Miller, Frank Stauffer and Paul Byer were arrested, charged with beating Nierren. The case occurred in a large saloon on Canton Street. They were taken to the Police Jail (Jay) was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with shooting his wife. The woman was beaten so furiously that she could not be carried to the hospital. She was taken to the Police Jail. Justice Whalen committed him to jail for court. Mary Spencer, a young girl, was arrested on Thursday night, charged with stealing a quilt from the dwelling of Mrs. Berry, No. 324 Bond Street. Mary was committed for the action of the Grand Jury. Charles King for beating John Byer was committed to jail for court, and John Geibel for beating Edward Hackett, was released on security for a further hearing.

Improvement in the West End.—During the past few years valuable improvements, which have given to the locality known as "Rock Spring" the appearance of a thriving village, have been made through the liberality of Wm. H. H. Goldsborough, Esq., a well known manufacturer of curdled hair. To supply the demands consequent upon the rapid progress made in his business, he has erected several rows of commodious and convenient dwellings, which are occupied by his workmen. He has also induced the corporation to extend the water to the neighborhood, and the vicinity is now well supplied with the improved style of fire-works. For several weeks past a large force of workmen have been engaged in laying down gas mains along the Frederick road, from Fulton street to the residence and factory of Mr. Wilkes. This gentleman has labored assiduously for many years to improve that section of the city where he resides, and the most gratifying results have crowned his labors.

Singular Escape from Death.—During the war, many instances have occurred of persons escaping death under peculiar circumstances, of which the following is a remarkable illustration: On Sunday last, during the engagement between the Union and Confederate forces for the possession of the Weldon railroad, Captain William Gibson, of Co. A., Parrell Legion, was struck in the right breast by a bullet, and would, without doubt, have been instantly killed, had not the bullet struck a dagger-shaped likeness of his wife and two children. The bullet glanced from the picture and passed through the chest of the man of the Union. The leaden messenger struck the Captain in such force as to render him insensible for several moments. The picture which saved his life was received by his wife, residing in the same section of the city, and its appearance will be more highly prized than when it was taken by the artist.

Pardon and Commutation.—In our issue of Saturday, we stated that William H. Rodgers, a R. H. Barber, Samuel H. Healy, and Braxton Lyon, who had been tried in the city by a military commission upon the charges of being spies, blockade runners, &c., were to be pardoned and commuted to the military to-day, between the hours of 5 and 11 o'clock A. M. But we have since learned that a deputation of influential citizens waited upon President Lincoln in behalf of these men, and the result is that Rodgers has been granted a free and full pardon, whilst the others have had their sentences commuted to imprisonment during the war. Rodgers, who was on Saturday released from custody, whilst the others will probably be confined in one of the forts. Extensive preparations had been made for the execution, and the enclosure of the fort has been considerably enlarged, and arrangements made for the prompt execution of the sentence.

Casualties in the Parrell Legion.—The following casualties occurred in Company A, Captain Wm. Gibson, of the Parrell Legion, on Sunday 21st, during the contest for the Weldon Railroad: Killed, private Steiner; wounded, John Jones, in leg; militiamen, Sergt. John J. Armliger, Wm. H. Grier, Corporal Merry and Farranger, privates Russell Allen, Hanson, Jean and Unger. The total loss of the Maryland Brigade, during the four days of the contest, was one hundred killed, and sixteen officers, and one hundred and seventy-eight men wounded; captured, three officers and ninety-one men. Captain Watkins was among the officers captured.

Assistance.—A most disagreeable nuisance existed in the central portion of the city on Saturday morning, caused by the intolerable stench borne upon the breeze from the soap and candle factory situated on the corner of Hill and Holiday streets. The stench was fearful, and we walked in the streets of Baltimore and Holiday streets, who became so affected by the smell that she had to be conveyed to her home on Hollis street in a carriage. It is a law that regulates such nuisances as the above, it should be enforced, as residents in the central portion have for years past been complaining of the disagreeable odor arising from this factory.

Lady's Leap.—On Saturday afternoon John Campbell, supposed to be a deserter, and one of the many who have jumped from the ranks of the Federal army, was arrested by the police of the city. He was confined during the night, and delivered to Major Blumensberg yesterday morning.

Sunderland's Minstrel.—Mons. Verreke has been engaged, and will appear for six nights more at the Maryland Institute. This will most positively terminate his engagement, and those persons who have neglected witnessing his thrilling feats should visit the theatre without delay. In addition to his performance on the trumpet, Mons. Verreke will each night perform his celebrated drum feat. The Minstrel Company will present entirely new programmes this week, introducing several burlesque operatic farces.

New Steamers.—Two steamers are now building on the Eastern Shore of this State, which when completed, will run between Baltimore and the small ports of the Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake. They are excellent models of marine architecture, and will be propelled by lever beam engines on the side which when completed, are now being built on an accommodation long needed on account of the scarcity of steamers running to the Eastern Shore.

Arrest of a Horse Thief.—Detectives Honeck and Cullen on Saturday night arrested Wm. Walters, charged with stealing a valuable horse from the stable of Gasaway Watkins, residing in Baltimore county, also with stealing a horse, the property of John Broadway, residing on "A" road road, a short distance from the city. Justice Spicer committed the accused to jail.

Illness of the Professor.—For the last three days Col. John Woolley, Professor H. H. H. has been confined to his room at the Eutaw House, in consequence of a violent attack of cholera morbus. He has, however, under the judicious treatment of Surgeon G. O. Cox, Medical Director, so far improved as to be able to leave his bed. He will soon leave home on a trip for physical recuperation.

Stealing Onions.—Officer Perrygo of the Central Police Station, on Saturday night arrested John McKelvey, charged with stealing a bag filled with onions, valued at $6, the property of G. H. Wesley of Baltimore county. Justice Spicer committed the accused to jail for the action of the Grand Jury.

Henry Fiske.—Henry Fiske was arrested on Saturday afternoon, charged with being drunk and driving his horse at a furious speed down the streets and along the sidewalks. Justice Whalen fined him $20 and costs, and committed him to jail.

Aiding Deserter.—August H. Biering was arrested on Saturday, charged with aiding deserters to desert. He was committed to the military prison, for the action of Col. Woolley.

From the Shenandoah.

[From the Washington Chronicle, 27th.]

We learn from an eye-witness of the fighting on the Upper Potomac on the 23d instant, was most brilliant and successfully conducted. At an early hour in the morning, the cavalry, under General Carr, advanced to feel the enemy's line. Three series of Ohio rangers, who were the vanguard of the rebels, were the first to be met. They pushed the skirmishers of the rebels steadily before them, and were themselves boldly followed up by the 6th corps until the fighting was over, and the rebels were compelled to fall back on their main army. Our line of battle was fully advanced and a most terrific musketry fire ensued.

The ground was rolling and partially wooded. The first sharp experience our men got of the rebel force was as they were lying back a stone wall and a fence which were parallel to our line of battle. The rebels opened on us with deafening volleys, which were promptly responded to, and they drove forward to the position. Three series of the field near by were literally covered with the wounded and dead. They silently withdrew before the determined attack of the fighting line, and secured our well advanced position, and finally, toward nightfall, fell back to our original position.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in the best possible spirit, and had great faith in their dashing commander.

General Sheridan and staff were on the field, and Captain E. H. Bailey lost a shoulder blade, a leg and a hand. The rebels were in