TUESDAY, AUG. 30, 1864. National Union Nominations.

FOR PERSIDENT:

ABIRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessee.

vest number of emigrants to this country is Nothing can be more explicit than this dealarming to the British aristocracy and its charmion. Davis subsequently added that press, and all sorts of expedients are being | there were differences between the views of

Irish the justice to say, that whatever flag it I consistency before known? factured for the occasion, of the kilnspping | Democrats of the present hour: of the poor creatures who reached our shores, I army-lut this was no more effective than the former reason given to deter the emigranis as ours was represented to be-but they, luck lly, had too many friends and correspondents here, from whom they were not only receiving advice, but also money to pay their passage lagainst it. There can be no neutrals in this over, and hence that trick would not answer. Now they are told, that our currency was hardly worth more than a third or one-half of the price of gold, but withhold the fact that labor is so much in demand that wages are two to three times as much as formerly, and ten times more in many instances than the emigrants received at home-in addition to which the latter have found out that all the covereigns they bring out with them, they can sell for more than twice the amount is greenbacks, and that these latter, being seoured by the pledge of all the property of the nation for their redemption, are really better than the notes of the Back of England. 89 from Grant at Petersburg, the Weldon rail the hope, like the attempt of Lee to retake read, will have to be abandoned-for they rope believe that this is not the best country in the world for them and their children. Any one of the latter, born after the landing on our shores of his parents, may till the Presi dential chair, and they themselves enjoy the highest honors and emoluments equally with our own people, born to the manor. THE PRESIDENTIAL BLECTION. - The re-clac-tion of Mr. Lincela will ba a death blow to at one lilts yet -aleder out to seven they will see in that zecomplished fact, that the people of the North have determined that they will not ! have shed in vain so much blood, and expend ed such a vast amount of treasure to preserve the unity of their country, the division of which would bring upon us a continuous war for at least one generation, if not forever, as Jeff Davis in his conversation with Col. Jacques most freely admitted would be the performed. ease, and would require immense standing armiss classes ready for action even in any Lifelphia on the advance of the British in the chart respite of war. Seeing this determination of our people, the rebels, now almost at the last verge of despair, will give up all us lost to them, and begin every man to lock on: for No. 1. If Grant and Sherman and Farra- ment of the Revolution, the second or third gut and Granger, do not before the Presidential election takes place, seatter the whole records now exist to show, all without insurance, concern to the winds, the moment it is annonaced that Lincoln is re-elected, it will scund as a death knell to all rebeldom, and from that mement the war will be virtually at an end. Elect any other candidate, he he a professed peace or war man, and no will then be, | alice family of Belumore. Their, Samuel and as it were, at sea, without a rudder or compass. Mr. Lincoln's term does not expire until March next, and his successor could not do anything, if he was so disposed, to allay the excitement and uncertainty as to the future. Congress, as assuredly one branch will, might take a different view of the situation of affairs, from that presented by the incoming President and a new Congress could not be elected and called together for a year or more, to determine what course was best to be pursued—and who could tell, in the mean time, what was to be the result of their de- graft letters of bichard li Lee, which prove liberation, and the conferences with the rebel furctionaries ?

No-the people of the loyal States may rest assured, and they will, on reflection, come to no purer patrick breathed; during "the times that that conclusion, that the speediest way to tried men's acula." bring about peace, is to support the Presi dent in his efforts to fill the ranks of the ar my without delay, and to re elect him to finish up the work they have given him to do. | Revolution, controlled nearly the whole political | in the Ward, there liable to the Draft and inter-That is the only way to insure a constation of adverse faction of the then colony of Maryland, evted in exampting the Word, are requested to the war, within any reasonable space of time, and those who live to see the event acomplished, of the triumphant re-election of the man of the people, will most assuredly realize | G vernor Eden, the then popular British Gov- | Bank. Then, after speaking of the Northern desaying that "their uprising has all the char actor of a feroclous servile insurrection," the editor concludes that the war "will enable u. to restore them to their moral rassalage, and teach them that 'exp in hand' is the proper atthade of the servant before his master."

Baltimore and Boms of Its Merchants During the Revolutionary War-Richand H. Loe, the Orator of Revolution the Confederate States Army.

In a Philadelphia paper, some weeks since, in order to attack General Hobert Lee, the Commaner-in-Chief of the Confederate atmies, it was charged that he was the son of the arch-traiter. Beachamp, aged 13 menths and 3 days. Bichard Henry Lee, of Mevolutionary note .-General Robert Lee, it is well known, was the ber funeral, on this (Tuesday) afternoon, at son of General Harry Lee, the famous partisan cannot succeed in making the masses of En leader in the Revolutionary War, and a great faverita of General washington. It may not be known as well to many of the present generation, even to citizens of Baltimore, that he, General Harry Lee, was a very decided I ederadat, of the Washington and Hamittonian school, and was one of the little brave Sportan band, who, under Alexander C. Hanson, eccupied the Charles Street House, during the fier o Baltimore riots of 1812, and being severely beaten, nearly lost his life at the jail, when there attacked by the mob General Lingan, also a Revolutionary General. was there killed by the same mob But even his eg. were General Robert Lee the son of Richard Henry, Le (-obert) would not be ashamed of his descrit. Richard Henry Lee was decritedly the of the ablest and most efficient men in the first lick Henry, the most cloquent orator that the Merclution produced, and as , we and home tapetri t as ever lived. As no one yet has appeared to rescul and vindicate his fair fame from the wanton slander of his Palladelphia traducer,-an humble descendant of a Revolutionary Baltimore amily, of which family Ric and Henry Lee was the very warm and devoted personal friend eighty-eight years since, would now attempt the grateful duty, however imperfectly it may be is is well known to all readers of their coun-

DYSENTERY

DIARRHEA SYRUP.

WM. H. READ'S COMPOUND CONCENTRATED SYRUP OF BLACKBERRY ROCT. For Diarrhoea, Dyzentery, Cholera Morbue, Cholera Infantum, Summer Disease, or for Children's Teething, this truly valuable Syrup stands without an equal, as thousands of our citizens can testify. It not only checks the bowels, but corrects and regulates them, thus obviating the necessity of any other medicine Capt. Wedge, who now resides No. -- Farette street, fermerly in command of the bark Wenhan, a vessel owned by Messrs Jas. Corner & Sons, had on board seven men, including himself, ill, very ill with dysentery. He treated them solely with Wm. H. Fead's COMP BLACK. BERRY SYRUP, and in a few days, strange as it may seem, he had them perfectly well. I got this from his own lips. The price is 50 cents per bottle.

MINERAL WATER. This is the most elegant drink we know of. WILL H. READ has fitted up, at great expense, a most magnificent Mineral Water Fountain. The syrups are all made of the pure, fresh juice of the fruit; the water is always for cold, and generated in pure porcelain sountains; thus making it one of the most attractive places in the city. We would like the readers of the Cripper to call and see, or rather taste, for themselves. Remember, 147 Baltimore street, one door from Calvert.

HAIR RUSTORUR.

HAIR RESTORKR.

HAIR RESTORER This celebrated article is most effectual in restoring grey hair to its natural color, no matter how aged the person, or how grey the hair, it will, in a short time, thoroughly restore it, and besides it is an elegant hair dresser, making hair oft and silky. I can endorse the above, as I have used it, and take pleasure in recommending it to my friends. WM. H. CATHCART,
