BELLION. professedly thought a very hard one by their \ traitorous abettors in the loyal States, that no efforts should be made to treat with them, to go pleading to them for terms, when even after being beaten to the very verge of exhaustion and ruin, the haughty traitors still talk loftly of what they may jet accomplish people of the North. It is well to remember just here, that however tamed they are now in their espirations | and hopes, they expected nothing less, at one North absolutely under their dominion-to their very feet. They proposed to break up follow: and utterly bumble the great States which in \ this war-and well for themselvet-bave stood by each other. And give them the chance now-let them up by that coveted a "armistice" from where they lie pinioned and held fast by our armies, and sided by foreign supplies and the natural divisions in the North that would eraus, and they would yet accomplish their borrible purpess and the North would be lost.

Let the people take note that in the compliengendered by the watchful abettors of trea son in the legal States, for the purpose plainly | who all endorsed what the man said. of getting up a diversion in favor of the hard pushed traitors in the field, there is danger that first causes may be forgotten. Whilst the with Charleston, even, it had more to do with a projected commercial rivalry, according to their own confessions, then it had with the vindlestion of great rights assailed or endangered, and thus these questions may be brought back to the starting point, preventing any from everlooking the true causes of the war, and enabling all to guard themselves against being imposed upon by the cheating and beaten traitors now. They deserve no sympathy, least of all that which should be ling a dishonorable peace, a discontinuance of looking to first causes, zone need be deceived; | den." none should shrink from the solemn and high hopes and liberties.

And now, by way of a needful reminiscence, we would call the attention of the people to a speech from the "Vice President" of the Confederacy, Alexander H. Stephens, and sot the great speech that has been so often quoted made at Milledgeville before the Legislature of Georgia. The speech to which we allude now, was, instead, made at Savannah, forg afterwards, in March, 1861. And with the lispie, of this city. war-as they supposed-in a fair way to suc ezed, he laid down the great programme of which they based their best hopes of success Comparatively obscure, as were these utterances, they are of incalculable importance now, as showing what were their deliberate intentions then, and what-had they the chance-they would carry out now. Dear Sir-I wish to inform you by this writing that I have been suffering with Asthma in its worst form for fo years, spending within that time hundreds of sleepless nights in the most suffering menner. Everything failed to give relief until I obtained a box of HASHEESH CAN-DY, which proved the most wonderful carative agency I ever used, relieving me immediately whenever attacked by the disease. Often I have been so severely attacked that I could with greadifficulty breathe at all, and was incapable of lying down at night, having such terrible smoth ering sentations. A'cdical men of all schools failed to affo d the least relief. Without much hope I resorted to this wonderful Candy in January, 1861, ever since which time I have slept without the least trouble by using some whenever threatened by an attack, and am thankfu. that such a remedy is to be found. I recommend it to all afflicted by Asthma, Rose Cold, Hay Fe-
