LOCAL NEWS.

The Draft.—The last day of grace, relative to the draft, expires to-day, and the drafted men will be turned on Monday next. In the Second Congressional District, the list 23, 30, 5th and 6th wards, will not be drawn at present, the 4th ward having filled its quota, and the others nearly so. In the 7th and 8th wards, the quota has been filled to fill the quota. The several counties in the Second District will also be drawn, as no disposition whatever has been evidenced to procure the men drafted by the Government. We have heard of no ward in the Third District having filled its quota, and as a matter of course, the draft will be proceeded with immediately. It is expected that the drafted men will be turned on Monday next. In the Second District will also be drawn, as no disposition whatever has been evidenced to procure the men drafted by the Government.

A Useful Invention.—There is now an exhibition at the City Hall, of a new invention, known as the "No. 321 West Baltimore street, an invention," may be claimed among the wonders of the age. It is a petroleum vapor stove, and requires neither fuel nor water, and occupies about the space of a half peck measure, can be used in a parlor as well as a kitchen, and emits no smoke or odor, and makes no noise. It will boil a quart of water in five minutes, and in the same time, bake bread in ten minutes and heat a flat-iron in five minutes—in fact, it will roast, fry, bake and broil in less time than any stove or heater in the world. During these hard times it will prove an excellent thing to persons who rent rooms, as it requires but a few cents per week to turn on the gas, and is not attended with any of the objections of the ordinary stove. Obeying Orders.—The order issued a few days since by the military authorities, directing a certain class of storekeepers, doing business on Eataw, Conway and Little Orleans streets, to close their places, was carried into effect by the military authorities, who were accompanied by a large force of the storekeepers determined to protest, but as Capt. Wiegles determined to protect the sick and wounded soldiers from land sharks, he gave positive instructions, that if his orders were disobeyed, he would send the goods of those persons refusing to comply and dispose of it for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers.

General Grant.—This distinguished military chief, accompanied by Lieut. Gen. Wm. B. Franklin, Major Gen. W. H. Dana, and his staff, arrived in this city yesterday morning in the boat from Old Point, and he was received at the Hotel House. The general was in excellent health, and in upper matters looking to a speedy crushing out of the rebellion.

Federal of a Police Officer.—The federal police officer, John H. Hays, was arrested yesterday by the military authorities, and taken to the Hotel House. The Last Night.—The Vestrali will make her last appearance to-night at the Holiday street Theatre. The play of the Duke and his Motto will also be produced for the last time. We are sure that the theatre will be crowded to-night with the friends of the charming Vestrali.

To the Voters of Baltimore.

The Unconditional Union Convention which met at the Hotel House, on the 12th inst. has nominated Archibald Stirling, Jr., as the candidate for Mayor of the Unconditional Union Party of Baltimore.

On the same day another assemblage of persons met at Temperance Temple and proposed the nomination of John Lee Chapman as their candidate for Mayor.

The first half of the year '64 found the municipal government of our city in the hands of those who were untrue to the Government of the United States; and the events which followed the resignation of the Mayor, and the election of Mr. Chapman as Mayor, in the fall of the year '62.

Mr. Chapman was selected in October of the same year, and he has since then been the Mayor of the City of Baltimore. Upon the organization of the Council he was chosen by his colleagues as its President, and he has since then been the Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

The term for which he was thus chosen being about to expire, it was to be expected, and only proper, that those who had invested him with power should have been asked to re-elect him, or to elect another. It was to be expected, and only proper, that those who had invested him with power should have been asked to re-elect him, or to elect another.

The well-known case of the attempted removal from office of the Alms House trustees—an irregular and unconstitutional proceeding—was a marked feature of the year '64. It was a marked feature of the year '64. It was a marked feature of the year '64.

The undersigned, citizens and legal and loyal voters, respectfully represent that they are convinced that the holding of Ward Meetings at night prevents a free and fair expression of the will of the people, and is a demoralizing tendency, causes fraud and corruption, and renders it almost impossible to ascertain the true will of the people.

Believing that the statements we have made cannot be controverted, and that their force must be sustained by all good citizens, we respectfully request the Convention to order our Ward Meetings to be held at night, but between sunset and sunrise.

With but little effort on the part of its organizers, and in the course of a few hours, this petition received the signatures of more than two thousand (2000) loyal voters, embracing men of every calling and profession, and including many of the most substantial and enterprising of the citizens of Baltimore.

This movement so obviously a step in the right direction, as to be readily conceded by all who feel any interest in securing a pure and economical administration in either City, State or National Government, and who believe in a return to the sense of the people to the duty and necessity of a participation in primary meetings if they would have any influence in the government of the city.

In like manner the "secession fund" raised by the secessionists, and the "secession fund" raised by the secessionists, and the "secession fund" raised by the secessionists.

The Union party is composed of Whigs, Democrats, and every shade of political opinion, who are united in the support of our country, of defending our common flag, of carrying on this war until every vestige of rebellion is crushed, and of maintaining themselves in comfortable positions, until the people shall have chosen a new Government.

Upon general and special matters of municipal concern, the Union party is united in the support of our country, of defending our common flag, of carrying on this war until every vestige of rebellion is crushed, and of maintaining themselves in comfortable positions, until the people shall have chosen a new Government.
