HOW M'CLELLANCAMETO BECALL-ED THE "LITTLE NAPOLEON."

There was a time in the history of the rebelwith almost anything that bore the semblance of success in the field; the time when the present eminent Copperhead, General Patterson, was timidly clinging to the line of the l'otomac or vibrating betwixt it and Winchester, and when the "Un to Richmond" cry, culminating in the catastrophe of the first conflict at Bull Run, made almost every one gloomy and fearful of being cursed with other l'atter- McKinley, consort of William McKinley, aged sons who might betray the good cause to evil 52 years. fortunes, no one knew to what extent.

In the midst of this trouble and doubt, news came from Western Virginia that a small victory had been gained there, by one searcely heard of until then, and who with a great affects:ion of modesty, was not slow to blow his own trump-incidentally-as we shall see. The ostensible victor was the little chief of the Copperheads of to-day,—for his gallant sub. ordinate, Besserans, got little or no credit for it, -and the manifesto in which "Little Mac" beralded his success to the eager public, was based in style upon the form furnished many a long year before for a much greater occi- Madine, in the 19th year of his age. sion-by the conqueror of Italy after the battle of Mondovi. TASHEESH CANDY. HASHEESH CANDY, ASTHMA.

ME. WM. H. READ: Dear Sir-I wish to inform you by this writing that I have been suffering with Asthma in its worst form for 20 years, spending within that time hundreds of sleepless nights in the most suffering manner. Everything falled to give relief until I obtained a box of HASHEKSH CAN-DY, which proved the most wonderful carative agency I ever used, relieving me immediately whenever attacked by the disease. Often I have been so severely attacked that I could with great difficulty breathe at all, and was incapable of has always has orders in advance of the article | lying down at night, having such terrible smoth manufactured. Amount required $2,000. Ad- ering sensations. Medical men of all schools failed to afford the least relief. Without much hope I resorted to this wonderful Candy in January, 1864, ever since which time I have slept without the least trouble by using some whenever threatened by an attack, and am thankful that such a remedy is to be found. I recommend it to all afflicted by Asthma, Rose Cold, Hay Fever, or diseases of that class.
