RESIGNATION OF JUDGE BLAIR. The resignation of Judge Blair has taken every body by surprise. Upon the causes which have led to it, it appears idle to speculate whilst we write this, since nothing positive ecems to be known concerning it, out of the immediate Presidential circle. Unething appears certain, however—and that is, that the late Postmaster General has not lost hi place in the regards of the Executive, or the latter in his, since he has entered the field as one of the speakers to get Mr. Lincoln reelected. The new incumbent is known as one of the ablest Executive officers of the nation, and none other could gain much reputation | Senaner, in the 48th year of her age, leaving an | for the coming campaign. Ay order in a position which has been to ably filled as only son. by the Cabinet efficer who has just vacated 1t. However Judge Blair may have made enemies by his political course, the Post Office Department has never been in abler or truer hands- and when the history of the Cabinet, so long Mr. Lincoln's co-laborers, has to be told, it will be found that with all their charged faults, with all the abuse that has been lavished upon them, the country has never been more ably served. Great navies, armies, finance systems, and a splendid postal service, all left wrecks, at the outset, are not recreated by inefficients and mere place men, and the country will some day do these noble public functionaries full justice. Until that time comes, they can afford to wait, for their record is immortal in the history of free gov ernmest.

The "Manifesto" then goes on to give, what purports to be, a true version of the effect to bring | MENERAL DEBILITY, LIVER COMthe only way to "prevent traud and induce the by mass of the voters to attend Waid meetings, is to hold them in the day time," as though they were the especial advocates of "day time mest inga". Since when has it been to ked upon as fraudulent by the originators of the Independent movement, and by the reandidate for Mayer to hold Ward meetingsat night? Is it not a notorious fact, that every meeting that ever nominated the cusirman of the call for day light meetings—was at night time-and that it was also at night that the voters of his Ward rejected him, and retused to send him any more to the Council's Is it not a fact that this same gentleman has been a standing candidate for something, ever slace 1861, at overy night meeting that has been held. And as to the other gentleman, who would ever accuse him, that knows snything of his antecedents, to desire day right meetings to secure a fair nomination? And what, play you, is the record of Mr. Stirling on aight meetingil What has made him so virtuous all at once? In 1856 he was sent to the Legislature by night receiving. He was afterwards nominated as State's Attorney by the same kind of night meet irgs. He was last fall nominated by night most ings as State benator, and but lest spring he thought aight primary meetings a tair and legiti mate way to send him to the state Convention And yet night primary meetings precent a fal expression of the sentiments of the people, and has su h a demoralizing tendency, and causes fraud and corruption." Since when was all this discovered? Only since two days before Mr. Stirling was nominated, when it was found that he could not be numinated by the Union party, and that the culy way to commute him was to refuse to go into the night meetings, and to raise the false cry for day-light meetings to gull the unwary, and to make an Independent nomination Let it also be recollected in this connection that Mr. Hoopes issued a call some time ago to nominate Stirling candidates for the C uncil.-The meetings were called for every ward in the city, and we assert it as a fact that in the whole twenty wards but one man was cominated, and that at the other wards there were no nomina tions made. Attempts have been since made t cominate Stirling Councilmen, and all of the meetings have been advertised to take place at Why? Surely not "to; revent a fair expresaton of the sentiment of the people? The "Manifesto" utters another falsehood, glaring in its race, when it asser: a that "with bu ittle effort on the part of its originators, and, in lect. the course of a few hours, this petition received Le signatures of more than two thousand (2,000) | mor.
