THE NEW CONSTITUTION-WHY THE WORKINGMEN SHOULD VOTE FOR IT.

The fact that the great counties to the north latter would submit to the change willingly, Calvert, is the Agent. no matter what prospective advantages to promises. One representative where they | the conspicuous advertisement of Messrs. Now if we look into this matter closely, we | body. shall find that these men, in one respect, assimilated closely in their ideas of what was proper in the structure of society and government, to those entertained by the very men who have plunged the country into war in | societed, and entremely beneficial in its action order to rule—the politicians of South Caro- | apen the skin. The possession of land, with such, was the test of position .-The most skilliful mechanic, the man who was the very soul of modern progress, was in the eyes of such men as those, only a "mudsill o" society," to be Honted, spurned, governed by landed proprietors. Consequently, everything that interrupted their stately notions of what was exclusive, grand, proper, was met as a | eminent chemis's of New York, and hundreds of | ling! Here, too, is hypocrisy for; they would not acknowledge that the world moved, if it interfered with the prescriptive right they haughtily claimed o the full concession of political power, based on

And whilst Virginia, the Carolinas, Gerrgia and so on have in turn moved upon Mississippi, Texas, Lohitians, Arkentas and Mis souri, Maryland has by no means escaped this blighting process, this "scourge." Manifesto"

The "manifesto" put forth by the "Committee of the Convention" that nominated Mr. Stirling. was drawn up as a bill of ledictment against Mr Chapman, and as the means of arraigning him before the people to receive their censure, and to deprive him of their support. It was also intended to ask the people to give their votes to Mr. Mirling. Its authors forget to practice the good old Bible rule:-"First cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mole out of thy brother's eyo." They are what is called in Holy Walt If p crits." Chapmen was nominated by night meetiags, therefore he is not fit to be Masor --Mr Stirling has been elected to some four different offices, and always nominated by the same kind of meetings, therefore he is fit for Mayor. If the good and true Union men of Baltimore can be gulled and deceived by such hypocritical cant then they deserve to be ruled by such men. The manifesto speaks of the present "City Conventian.'' and characterizes it as a body 44 recently elected by means most questionable when the man that praned it know that he and every other supporter of Mr. Stirling, attended the night primary meetings to elect that same Cit Convention, and used their best efforts to ser their delegates to control it. This 'City Conver ," thus characterized, it composed of some (the best men in Baltimore, and is presided over by James Young, Esq., President of the Firs

The charge is then made that the employmen of extra and unnecessary force in the City Yar was begun months in advance of the period at which they were to swell Primary meetings, pra tice the art of hitting from the shoulder, or de p sit "little jokers" by the scare in a hat all un l observed by the unwary Teller at a night ward

Branch City Council.

This is simply and purely an unmitigated falsehe d "from beginning to end," and the author knew it was so when it was written. There ha no increase of "extra" and "unsecessar time" in the City Yard. The only increase force that has been made, is those for the purpose of clearing the Ha, bor, under the direction of a special commission composed of such men as I Jimb W. Hugg, Robert Lealie, James McDougal . Wm. Chernut and others. The Mayor he nothing to do with their employment. The manifisto" proceeds to say that the su posters of Mr. Chapman having determined the That the Mayoralty rominating meeting should be held at night and within less than 43 hour from the time this determination was declared and over the semonstrance of more than two thousand loyal voters, but one of two courses remained to those who disapprered, either to acces-Mr. Chapman without a struggle, for another term, with the prespect of an indefinite continuance at the hands of his office-holders, or to invike the people to the manner set forth in the memorial, that is to say, by a daylight vole, with all the formalities of a legal election, through Judges and Clerks of known integrity and with a registration of the names and residences of the

What consistency is here displayed. Chapman trimary meetings were determined to Draft. be held within two days after the notice given by the City Convention, which was "remunstrated against by over two thousand voters," and the I very next paragraph tellars that the manager of the Independent nomines call their mielings or the afternoon of the same day on which the City Convention had called meetings, and some three tours earlier; and yet it is asserted by there Links of consistency that "To no purposa was it urged that a Mayoralty nominati n. four months in advance of the election, was both unwise and unprecedented."

The Manifesto speaks of "the renomination fund," and says: "This fund was to the Idayor alty Lomination what credit is to the Government, or supplies and aumunition are to th army-it was to furnish the size ws of the fight One would think, to read this, that the Stirling men would scorn to use money to nominate or elect their candidate. One would think they were possessed of such a Ligh degree of virtue that nothing short of a great popular uprising en masse could satisfy them for a nomination

Is it not a fact that two days before the nomination of their candidate, money was as plenty | Ing in the hands of the Stirling men as though it had been picked up off the s reets, and that ever now, they have so much of the "sinews of war, as to give $6,000 to a certain paper to advocate the claims of their candidate? And yet, Mr. Chacman forsooth, bought his nomination; Mr. Stirling had bis offered to him.

The "Manifesto" after quoting in full, the "Call" made by D. H. Hoopes and Jas. H. Woods for the meetings to nominate Stirling, says: "Brief as was the notice given, the election he inder it furnishes the most convincing proof. not only of the interest felt in the Mayoralty con test itself, but of the deep satisfaction with whi hundreds of those who had not participated I primary nomina ions for years, embraced the or portunity to attest at once their approval of the time and mode adopted, and to administer a re bake to those who sought by night meetings to continue the practices of fraud and bullying " * The appregate vote cast was two thousand five hundred, averaging considerably over one hun died votes to each ward, and being fully one third more than was cast for Mr. Chapman sight, notwithstanding the informal manner in some of the wards." We assert, in reference to this statement, without fear of contradiction, that it does not contain ling there were but eight votes cast in the First | LINCOLN AND JOHNSON CENTRAL ASSO-

HASHEESH CANDY, Dear Sir-I wish to inform you by this writing that I have been suffering with Asthma in its worst form for 50 years, spending within that time hundreds of sleepless nights in the most suffering manuer. Everything failed to give relief until I obtained a box of HASHEESH CAN-DY, which proved the most wonderful carative agency I ever used, relieving me immediately whenever attacked by the disease. Often I have been so severely attacked that I could with great difficulty brestne at all, and was incapable o ailed to affo d the least relief. Without much hope I resorted to this wonderful Candy in Jan-| uary, 1861, ever since which time I have slept without the least trouble by using some whenever threatened by an attack, and am thankful that such a remedy is to be found. I recommend it to all afflicted by Asthma, Rose Cold, Hay Fever, or diseases of that class. JOHN R. WILKER,
