THE "HERALD" ON M'CLELLAN. Everybody knows that the N. Y. Herald stuck to McClellin as long as there seemed any chance for his election, but he has been found to be too heavy a load to carry, and is t therefore thus shook off in the following style: \ "THE CHICAGO CONVENTION ON THE WAR" Wonderful Ignorance. - The Chicago Convention 'explicitly declares' in its platform that the war is a failure, and that we must resort to other means than warlike ones to settle the differences between the people of the United i Biates and the friends and adherents of Jeff. 1 Davis. New it is only natural that the men l of the Chicago Convention should have studied h very closely and very intensely the history of h that part of the war that was carried on and bottle. conducted by General McClellan, the favorite hero and leader of the Chicego patriote. Unquestionably they, like sensible men, talk of the things they know most about, and when I they speak of the war they mean Gen. McClellan's part of it. We can, therefore, agree Gen. Grant-at least we are led to infer that | independent cliques. from his omission of Grant's name from the number of the national heroes whom he praised so gracefully in his speech at Orange; but we had not supposed that the Chicago Convention was made up entirely of political Rip Van Winkles. THE OCIOBER STATE ELECTIONS .- Only three State elections occur during the present month, but they are all very important -- being those of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. They all occur on Tuesday next, the 11th instant. Great interest is felt among politicians as to the result in Pennsylvania. general State officer is to be voted for; but Congressmen and Legislature, and city and county officers are to be chosen. The campaign is characterized by great activity, and | a large vote will probably by policed. The present delegation to Congress is equally divided, consisting of twelve Republicans and twelve Democrats. Two of the former were clicted over the regular nominees by the aid] of Democratic votes, and one of the latter was similarly elected by republican aid. At the election of 1862, the vote for auditor general showed that the democrats had a majority on the State ticket of 3,524, in a total of 434,756 votes. Litet year, however, 1 1425 Curtin, rep. and Union, was elected Covernor by a majority of 15,325.

Obio also votes for Corgressmen, but not for Governor. List year, Brough, Univi was elected Governor by a inspirity of 101, 039 votes, although the previous year the democrats elected 11 out of 19 Congressmen. In Indiana a Governor and Congressmen are to be chosen. This State in 1962, gave a democratic majority of 9 513, and the same party elected 7 to 11 Congressmen.
