Mass Meeting at Westminster. - A large and enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday at the above place. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. Ecker, who, with a few remarks, introduced the Hon. Frank Thomas, who spoke at some length, reviewing the course of Mr. Lincoln and his many coadjutors, and the campaign of Generals Grant, Haerman and Sheridan, but more particularly referred to the new Constitution. He urged upon the people of Carroll county the necessity of its adoption, and closed his remarks by wishing that the county might also give a large majority in favor of Abraham Lincoln. After the sprech of Mr. Thomas, the Court Room, in which the meeting was being held was so crowded that they were compelled to adjourn to the grounds adjoining the Upart House, where the Hoa. Montgomery Blair had been addressing a large number of people ] who were numble to get inside of the Court
