National Union Nominations. POR TRESIDENT: ABRAHAM LINCOLA, of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

ANDREW JOHNSON, of Terrosses.

Electoral Ticket. State at Larre: - WM. J. ALBERT. H. H. COLDSBOROUGH. 1st District:-W. H. W. FARROW. WM. H. REESE. R. S. MATTHEWS, ISAAC NESBIT. GEO. W. SANDS.

THE PRESIDENT TO BE PROTECT.

ED AGAINST HIS "FRIENDS." The resent decided triumph of the regularly organisad Union forces of the city by the re-election of Hon. John Lee Chapman for Mayor, shows conclusively that the future is sale enough if our friends are but true to themselves. But before they stop to exult proaching Presidential election?" over their success, we would remind them that their work is not yet fully accomplished .-They have a wily set of antagonists to deal with, these who will not be slow to seek satisfaction if it is to be had; and let it be noted further, that all that is really left to the defoated in this regard is to continue their leader -the Hon. R. Winter Davis-in position.

Now we take occasion to say that so far as Mr. Davis is in the case, or any of that wing of the Union party, we care nothing whatere. as to their encoess or fallure in achieving political honors, only as it affects the cause of the Union represented in the person of Mr. Lincoln as the nomines of the Baltimore Conreation. And when we know, over his own signature, that Mr. Davis goes for Mr. Lizcole only estensibly, that it is impossible for his to be an extrest and sincere supporter of the President after having so recently furiously we beg leave to say-that it is the duty of overy true Unionist to distrust, and more, dispard such would-be leaders, in favor of those who will indeed stand by Mr. Lincoln, and the cause of which he is the recognized representative, heart and hand.

Let the Union man mark carefully the lan guage of Mr. Davis in the Assembly Rooms zpeech:-"I! Mr. Lincoln is elected, Benjamin "Wade and the men that sland with him ere "the Presidents and unlers of the Republic."

Non we ask, who wents anything more conclusive and outspoken than that? We war: the Union man of the city in time to abstrict from sending to Washington egain as a mai content and an opporer of the Administration one of the men that "stand" with Ban. Wade. Hr. Lincoln is to be re-elected, that is certain encugh now; and it is the duty of every patriot in the land to see that the men who did their best to embarrace, and afterwards to supercede Mr. Liccoln, are not again returned to Congress to plague and werry him who has enough on hand in fighting the enemies of the Union in front, without stepping to deal with another fire in the rear. Both Wade and Davis grumblingly, ungraciously, give in their adhesion to the zominee of the Union party of the nation. Then what claim have they to be trusted, to be put its a place where we need stanged champions of the cause

decided antagonists where all is not done ac cording to their one-idea programme? Well, the place to correct all this is-so far as Mr. leavis is concerned -- at home. He musnot get the numination for Congress, his friends toust do no "packing," a truer man must take his place. If he has not "been weighed in the balances and found wanting," then no opponent of Mr. Lincoln in the land has been. We know that a false notion prevalls elsewhere that Mr. Davis is the head and front of the Union party here. With not a chied of popularity at home, it has been his west to make a grand "splurge" at New York | model for men of your profession." or some other prominent point, and dazzled and misled by his grand assumptions, people cleamhere have come to think-and shrowd welcome. THE BEAR RAID IN MINNESOTA. Tae citizens of Minnesota are at present a state of excitement arising from a rather from the gallant Phil. Sheridan, not the advance of Grant, nor yet the rebel invasion of I the West which disturbed their equanimity neither is it an orslaught of Indians upon their upprotected towns. It is none of these, and yet it is the inroad of an enemy no whit less savage, crusi or remorsoless than the rec man, one of the most persistent and dangerous of foes to civilization—the American bear. within an area of one mile from their public | Calvert, is the Agent.
