On Friday there was considerable alarm at Unattanooga, and every able-bodied man was put to work on the fortifications. At last advices General Kilpatrick, with his cavalry. was at Dalton. No apprehension is now felt for Chattanooga or Knozville. Gen. Sherman has over 100 days rations at Atlanta. Knoxville has an abundance of provisions to stand \ a six months' siege. The Chattanooga Cov. ernment store houses are also full of provisions. Gen. Milroy was at Tullahems, and Gen. Behotield at Chattanooga.

Private reliable information says that on Saturday evening Hood's rebel army was between Dalton and Lafayette, making for the latter place, with Sherman pressing him closely. Prominent military men say that Hood's last move places him exactly in the position desired by Shorman. There has been considerable excitement at Charksville, Tonnessee, consequent upon reports of scouts that the rebel Gen.
