POLITICAL NEWS.

"A PLAIN BLUNT MAN."-John B. Harringten, of New York, who addressed the Copperheads at Tourn Hall, Wednesday evening, announced himself as a "plain, blunt man." That he speke truthfully none of his bearers doubted after he had uttered a few words. Yet his plainness and blunthess exactly suited the crowd he addressed, and every traiterous sextiment that secaped his lips was loudly applanded. Here is one of the choice morsels which he laid before his bearers:

"The soldiers are an infidel Yankes horde who will not gladden the devil when they die -I give them my contemptite pits, and that is all I will give them." Of the war he said:

"Little Mac" declares for war and the Union, and then tells the Chicago Peges party that he thinks they must have meant the same thing when they voted the war a failure, and swore to an armistice. Jack Bungby's position is equally clear:

"My name's Jack Bungby. And what ears letands to. Whereby, why not? It so, what odds? Can any man say otherwise? No Awast then! Do I believe this here son and hair's gone down, my lads? Mayhar.
