POR COMBRESS,

THE MARYLANDERS IN NEW YORK -- IMMIGRATION OF CAPITAL AND LABOR INTO THIS STATE.

We have already republished from a New York paper the account of the stirring meet tog held by Marylanders in New York, and from a subscriber to the Clipper in that city wo now have something further. And what is pleasant to consider as confirming the accompts from time to time received here of projected immigration bither of labor and capital, the writer states explicitly as within his knowledge, that we may look for such. We have it from several sources that some of the heaviest capitaliste in New York, Philadelphia and Beston have already been quietly survey. ing the field of operations here, and that ore long we may look for a start in matter, such as will surprise old fogylam, dreaming ove: the past of cur city and Btate. With the Precidential election with things will begie to move. Let the believers in a better des tiny for Maryland pour in-there is room encugh for all:

NEW YORK, NOV. 2 There was a meeting of Marylanders rech ding here, tast evening; and they had a juy ful time, as was natural, on the result of Maryland's riddance of slavery and her enreliment among the free States of the Union Dr. J. E. Soudgrass presided and made the opening address, which was warmly appland ed. Speeches were also made by Lumbert S Beck, Wm. Belderston Hayward, Wm. Rob ILBOR, Poter A. Bailey, M. Edward Stapleton, Eli West and F. A. Francisco-sil old Marylanders. Resolutions of congratulation were adopted amid great enthusiasm, and an address ordered to be prepared and forwarded to the people of Maryland. The tone of the specuaes and the proceedings throughout were marked by a kindly consideration for the suddenness of the change to which the slaveholders have have entired, has show was but the the testing as to the ultimate result—the enhanced prosperity of all the interests of your great State in the glorious future which is before her, new that her only drawback has been removed by the edict of her own people! Our people are getting ready to buy land among you, and to come and improve it with all the energy of the Northern character, as the proceedings of the "Farmer's Ulub" of the American Institute, and other signs of the times plainly indicate. As peaceful, thrilty and Union loving settlers, all they will ask is a kindly welcome when they conic, as they will ere long, to add to the certain future greatness which awaits Maryland under the policy of free labort

THE OATH TO BE TAKEN-GOVER-NOR BRADFORD'S NOTICE.

The loyal men of the State will rejoice t find by a notice in another column, that Gov Bradford has done his duty in centioning the disciples of Reverdy Johnson from approach ing the polls at the hazard of being arraign: for perjury. With the last laid down thus by one of the ablest legal minds of the State, and its Ohist Magistrate as well, we shall see whether the earnest dealer to aid treason wi cause men to run extra hazards, after being once fairly warned. We are well aware that a desperate faction, mad with previous de feats, military and political, at all policis, will stick at nothing in the line of audacity, treachery; and even perjury, to save their cause, but it is everything to know that they will be met with a determination equal to some experience in wine, and have tasted none their own, and watched with a vigilance such as will leave them little to boast of when the election is over. We congratulate the Unionists of the Btate on Governor Bradford's grampiness—let them do all that is possible to second him in his preissworthy endeavors to keep the ballot box secred to the purposes free government, pure from the pollution treaton would put upon it.

Den Rosecrate, in Missouri, and our other commanders in the border States, i cluding l'ecosylvania, havo is sued stringent orders against adspicious characters and rebe sympathizers voting at the coming election If such a course is lawful and proper and necesmary elsewhere, it is two-fold more so in Maryand. Nineteen out of every twenty votes given in this State for McClellan, will be polled by mea who would rejoice at the polls to hear of the defeat of Grant, and Batler, and Bherman, and Sheridan, by Lee, and Errly, and Hood, and Beauregard. And should such men be permitted to vote, if they take a thousand oaths of loyalty, when they are so well known and marked, for their treasunable proclivities, se to leave no doubt of their swearing falsely when they take the oath? The times require extraordinary efforts and measures to preserve the State from Islamy, and from falling into the hands of at No. 21 West Fayette street, between Harrison

TO THE JUDGES OF ELECTION: New Constitution, published in one of the Baltis civil engineer, and stated that he had been | Withink, is a mistake, and, as it is one into | of loyalty. tals or on detached duty within the State to vote | pathiser. The Swedish journals publithed a at the neurest Polls (vection 12 of the Schedule,) provisions contained herein for taking the soldiers' rote on the adoption of the Constitution the Lapp wto all elections to be hed in this cla'e until the General assemble shoul privide some other mode of taking the same." The effect of this pro-I vision is certainty to authorize the application of \ the 12th Section of the Schedule to the coming Another clause in the Constitution seems also to require attention.

I have received from Judges of Election in several of the counties letters asking my opinion is regard to their obligation to administer to voters at the epproaching election the cath prescribed MEN'S, or the Constitution, and I take this occasion riefly to state it The 4th section of the 1st Article of the Constitution declares that "the Judges of Election at the first e'ection "held under this Constitution shat", and at any "subsequent election mar, administer to any person chering to vote, the following outh or affirmation," &c But it has been suggested that the first election held under the Conattitution was that held on the 12th and 13th of October last, and that therefore at the approaching REYNOLDS .- On the 31st ult , Annie Roberts, | election the Judges may or may not in their Buch is not my construction of the section HAMMOND Lin the 3d instent. own provisions for it to go into effect. This view is contirmed by another consideration. If the Convention, in the Section quoted, meant to designate the election on the question of adopting the Constitution as "the first election" held under it, there would have been no necessi ly for providing, as they did with such perticularity in the schedule, that the voters at that elec tionshould take the oath previously required .-Such additional provision would have been allogether useless, as, according to the construction suggested, that requirement had airealy been made of such voters.

I have therefore no doubt that the "first election held under this Constitution" refers to the election of the 8th November, icstant, and that it is obligatory upon the Judges of that election to administer the oath sennired. on the Library will hold a Grand
