STATE OF MARYLAND. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

ARNAPOLIS, Nov 3, 1864. TO THE JUDGES OF ELECTION: I observe that in a synchois of some parts of the New Constitution, published in one of the Baltimore papers of the ist instant, referring to the c.mirg alection, it is stated that "soldwis are Let anthorized to rote at the polls nearest to any Militery Hospital &c. as at the last election. 7 his, I think, is a mistake, and, as it is one into which others upon a cureary reading of the Conf stitution may very naturally fall. I think it advisable to correct it. It is true that the fection referred to, regarding the right of roldiers in hospitals or on detached duty within the State to vote at the nearest Polls (Section 12 of the Echedule,) does not in terms apply to any other election than the last, at which the question of suppting the Conatitution was submitted to the vote of the reciple but, by turning to the 16th Eection of the same Arlicie. you will find that it is provided that "if this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, the shalopp'ut all elections to be he'd in this Lin'e. until the General Assembly shall provide some other mode of taking the same."
