REJOICINGS AT ANNAPOLIS OVER THE ELECTION.

Annapolis, Nev. 12 -The paroled prisorers of war now at Camp Parole near Abnapplis, held a grand jubilee last night over the Union victories at the polls. One hundred guns were fired and a number of speeches made with bontires and music. The enthusi- late movements in the Vailey: sam was very great. To-night the officers and soldiers with the Union citizens at Annapolis hold a mass meeting at market square.

ARREST OF A SUPPOSED SPY. Washington, Nov'r 13th .- On Baturday night, 5th Instant, a man giving his name as George Peterson, supposed to be a rebel spy or mail carrier, was arrested while trying to pass over the line, having been traced from Uznada by detectives. He was dressed citizen's clothes. He has been committed to the Old Capitol prison for trial.

NEAR CEDAR CEEEK, Va., Nov. 8 .- The past day or two deserters from the rebels report the enemy in force near Staunton, and that it was his intention to move upon our dines at once. This may seem a very presumptuous saying on the part of an enemy some of the officers of our army give credit to the disorganization of the Valley rehal army. They are not disorganized.

General Sheridan knows this fact, and his subordinate generals reflect his opinion. In view of this no vigilance is abated, no dereliction in duty, no neglects on the picket line allowed.
