A MERCHARI'S STORY .- A member of large mercantile firm recently gave me a bit of his early experience. Said he "I was h seventeen years old when I left the country store where I had 'tended' for three years, and came to Boston in search of a place. Auxious, of course, to appear to the best . advantage, I spent an unusual amount of time | and solicitude upon my tolict, and when it was completed I currefed my reflection in the glass with no little satisfaction, glancing lastly and most approvingly upon a seal ring chesed with direct reference to this occasion. My first day's experience was not encoursking. I traversed street after atreet, up one l side and down the other, without success. I faceled toward the lest that the clerks all !
