Gen. Sherman's Campaign.

Burrato, Nov. 20 .- Brigadler General Bar ry, Sherman's Chief of Artillery, arrived here] yesterday seriously ill. He left Gen. Bhermau at Kingston, Georgia, at 9 A. M., on the 12th. Dick Taylor's men. Gen. Barry says that Sherman has all the infantry, cavalry and artillery he wants. The a fight at Johnsonville, in which Forrest from Meridian to Montgomery, a distance of them were probably efficiers, judging from men had received eight months' pay and outfit, especially adapted to a hard and rapid winter's campaign, and the morals of the million will exceed the total Government loss troops was unequalled, giving promises of etfi | The facts are: Forrest, on the night of the ciency and vigor. including Forrest's cavalry, were in the immediate neighborhood of Tascumbia and Piorence, Alabama, watched by the troops of General Thomas, of such strength as will render the invasion of Tennessee impossible, only two burned. What little stores were and even the withdrawal of the enemy for service clsewhere an operation of extreme difficulty.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20.-The Gazette's Nach unchanged and comparatively quiet. The as night be of value to the rebels was comrain continues and the roads are in bad condition. Hood and Beauregard are still in the vicinity of Florence. Nine hundred rebel prisoners arrived at Nashville on Saturday morning from Atlanta. It appears that, thinking the place evacuated, they rushed in to pillage and plunder, and were captured !

The rebil sympathizers at Nashville are gleomy and disconsolate in consequence of the anticipated results of Sherman's movements. Accessions to the National arms are arriving daily from the North.

REBEL REPORTS. Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—The Inquirer has extracts from the Richmond papers of Friday. The Augusta Chronicle says that secute who left Jonesboro on Wednesday morning report that Gen. Howell Cobb, with from six to eight thousand milltla and three brigades of cavalry, had attacked the enemy and was steadily driving them in.

They are suppresed to have crossed during the night. The Prowest Marshal of Montgomery county, as soon as informed of the matter, made inquiries from which he is led to believe that there is a concerted howe and cattle stealing movement into Maryland by Moseby's and other guerilla bands. The troop was led in this instance by Harry Gilmor, who left a note pinned to the wall of a deserted building announcing that his present raid was only a forerunner of what was to come.

The buildings destroyed were the rolling mills, "government shops," stables and warehouses. But few private houses were burned, and these were fired accidentally, the fire le mmunicating from the turning buildings near. The soldiers seemed to make every el fort to save private property. REBEL MOVEMENTS TO COUNTERACT SHERMAN'S

CAMPAIGN. [From the Cincinnati Commercial, Nov. 19] The conjecture that Early's unexpected re treat upon Staunton is in consequence Sherman's movements in Georgia, is not probably wide of the mark. There will be great harrying to and fro throughout the Confederacy to collect an army sufficient in number to dispute Bherman's advance.

Hood and Beauregard will hardly waste time in a bootless enterprise against Memphis, with Sheridan marching into the very heart of the Confederacy. But if at all disposed to try a campaign in that direction, or in Tennessee, they will find Thomas in the latter case, and tien'l A. J. Smith in the former, prepared for them.
