AMUSEMENTS.

The Opera. - The opening reason of the German Opera at the Holliday street Theatre, . was loaugurated in a blaze of triumph. The theatre was crowded in erery portion, and large numbers of ladies were contented to stand in the altles and lobbies during the entire performance. The opera of La Dame Blanche was given in a superior menner, and Counterfelt postal currency received ... elicited thunders of applause. This evening Der Freischutz will be given with a powerful cast, Carl Formes and Madamo Prederici sp pearing in the leading characters. In the production of this opera great care has been exercised to insure the success of the splendid spectacular effects in the incentation scene. -Seats can be secured upon application at the theatre, or at McCaifrey's music store.

The Russian War .- The panorama of the Russian War will be exhibited to night at the Maryland Institute. The paintings are well swing or flying trapize act. As our citizens Captains Dillingham, of thip Snow Equall, tiff for $189.35. are conversant with the bold attempts of this and Usborn, of bark Ocean, who were pasperformer, it is needless at the present to refer in detail to his performance. A matinee will be given on Thursday afternoon.

Front Street Theatre - Despite the uppleasandweather which prevailed last night, Mr. Frank Drew was complimented with an excellent audience. He has wonderfully improved sine; his last engagement in this city, and it would prove a difficult matter to find a more vereatile and attractive artist then the rolicking Frank. His female burleiqua charactors are excellently readered, and his conception last night of Camille was answered by uprestious laughter. A lively and exceedtagly good bill will be presented to night.

Pilgrimages in India-The Bombay Times inserts the following statement: -Thirty miles northeast of Saol poor, at Tool:zapoor, is the great temple of the goddess Bhoweni, and twice in the year the place is thronge I by men and women every grade, who come to pay their yows and escribes to the idel. Besides this, at every full moon, long trains of pligrims may be seen flocking thither, and such is the faith of the i people in the healing power of the goode: that the sick are resorting there constantly in the vain tope of some relief. The temple at l Punderpoor is still more renowned.
