CTATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Annapulis, November 11, 1864. The time-honored custom of the past reminds us that we should appoint a day of Thankegiv-

ing and Prayer for the blessings which Almighty God has permitted us to enjoy. We should prepare for its observance with unabated interest, for though deploying the necessi y that still constrains us to save the life of the Nation by the vigorous use of its arms, we feel i that this war, lamentable as in most of its aspects it is, sorely as it at times afflicts our deatest individual interests and feetings, is still so qualified by other considerations as to -? prompt us to approach the Threne of Grace with even desper devotion towards Him who has its issues in His keeping. He has suffered neither pestilence nor famine to aggravate its heflictions.

He has subjected the patrictism of our people to the saverest trials, and made it all the brighter for the ordeal. He has given victory to our arms on sea and land in innumerable instances, demanding our earnest thanks for His favor, and our prayers for the gallent men that have suffered and bled therein. me has resenred our State from | In the city or country, on the various description the ravages that have frequently threatened at | of Property. with a merc ful interposition that calls for our especial gratitude.
