NO MONEY SHOULD BE EXPENDED ON FORTS OF THE CANADA LINE. OUR NAVY. "

A bill bee been introduced into the Senate of the United States by a member from Michigan-to enable the President to expend "ten militons of dollars, or so "much thereof as in his opinion may be "necessary, for erecting fortifications and "floating batteries for the protection of "the Lakes and frontiers against the "attacks of piratical and hostile expe-"ditions organized in the British Provsinces by the enemies of the United "States;" and on the question of reference to a committee, a stirring debate followed, every member who spoke, conmust be promptly righted, and the country along the border insured against aggressions in the future such at have recently

Now we hope and trust that no such that lise no more than we would think of putting them on the line betwirt New York and Pennsylvania. England has demonstrated her utter indifference to all sense of right in the premises, and the proper way to do, is, -should further cause be given-to expend the "ten millions of dollars," or any sums additional, entirely in our own interest at the mouth of the St. Laurence, just as we do now upon the harbor of New York or the entrance to Chesapeake Bay. The greater portion of her colonial territory is held by an hundred fold less right than she has given us to take the Canadas, using her own precedents; and for us, after the exhibit she has made, to stand off and give her a chance to practice outrages upon a great nation lib this, longer, is to cause us to lose prestige us a first class power in the eyes of every other nation on earth.
