FALL OF SAVANNAH BECKIVED IN ENGLAN

It Causes Great Excitement.

THE ADVANCE ON WILMINGTON. The United States transport and mail arrived at this port yesterday morning, and brings the following news:

On the 18th our entire force, under Gen. Alfred H. Terry, advanced toward Wilmington, and were reinforced by a heavy column of veteran troops from the South. believed to be under command of General Howard. No beary fighting occurred on ; the 12th or 19th, and it was thought our troops were meeting with little or no opposition from the enemy. A report from the front says that Wilmington was evacuated, and that our troops would occupy the place at once.-This report is, no doubt, the origin of the story that Wilmington had fallen into our hands, so currently announced during the ,
