I submit whether I: would not be the duty of the Benate to inquire into their origit?

Mr. Fester. Certainiy, Mr. President, agree most decidedly in the case put by the renator that it would be the duty of the Bezate to do so. If the honorable Senator came here with credentials certified according to the neual form and signed by the Becretary of State of Massachusetts, with the seal of that notic Commencements attached to it, and certifying that he had been elected from such a date to such a date, and three eredentials were in proper form, I submit to the Benstor that in referring that comment to our judiciary committee no such question as the Benator enggests would be raised before the committee or before the Benste. The com mittee would be charged with the duty of examining the comment, and if they found it in due form they would say so to the Benste, and having said that they would say no more unless they travelled out of the record, t invertigate whether the Senator had been du-
