The Fall of Charleston.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21st.—The steamer Fulton from Charleston on the evening of the 15th has arrived, with interesting details of the evacuation of Charleston and its occupation by our troops. [SECOND DESPATCH.] Fulton, Captain Norton, from Port Royal and Charleston bar on the 18th instant at 6 o'clock, P. M., arrived here this morning. Purser Tim. McManus, furnishes. Cavalry have been sent in pursuit.

us with the following memoranda: Charleston was evacuated by the enemy on the night of Friday the 17th, leaving . the various fortifications uninjured, besides over 200 guns which they spiked. The evacuation was first discovered at Fort Moultrie in the morning at twelve o'clock. Part of our troops stationed at James' Island crossed over in boats and took possession of the city without oppo-

The upper part of the city was on fire. Previous to evacuating the city, the rebels fired the upper part of it, by which some six thousand bales of cotton were burned; and it was supposed, before the flames could be subdued, two-thirds of th city would be destroyed.

A fearful explosion occurred in the Wilmington Depot, cause unknown, by which, it was reported, several hundred of the fleeing citizens lost their lives! The building was used for commissary purposes, being situated in the upper part of
