NEWBERN, N. C., March 12, via Philadelphia. March 15.—Yesterday the enemy fell back across Neuse river, after burning the bridge over that stream. It is reported that they also burnt the rebel ram at the same time, which was guarding the bridge. Timber is now going forward to retuild the bridge.

The railroad is completed to within a short distance of the river, o posite Kinston, and the enemy will not be able to remain in Kinston long, even if they decide to make another stand, of which there is room to doubt.

1)eserters and refugees continue to come into our lines, from whom we learn that the enemy have suffered most, owing to their repeated charges on our works, in which they were repulsed each time with severe loss. FORT MONROE, March 14 -The steamer Champion, Captain Wilson, arrived here this morning from Wilmington on 11th inst., bringing the first definite intelligence respecting the movements of Gen. Sherman and his forces. On the morning of the 11th instant, scouts from General Sherman's army reached Wilmington with the news that his army had reached Fayetteville, N. C., and in its immediate wicinity were quietly resting preparatory to another movement northward. Everything was quiet in and around Wilmington.
