March 24th, 9 P. M. Vajor General Diz, New York: The following extracts from Richmond lapers have been received this evening at 40 P. M., from General Grant: EDWIN M. STANTON.

Becretary of War. CITY POINT, March 23J, 1865. tion. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War: Richmond papers have been received. The following is from the Despatch:

PROM NORTH CAROLINA. It is understood in official circles that to fighting has occurred in North Caroliv since Sunday, and from all we can varn, it appears that Sherman has . empted no advance since his check on hat day. General Hardee's victory on . The 16th instant was a very important one. h that battle the confederate loss was 450, while that of the enemy was 3,300.

The fight took place at Arenaboro, on the Cape Fear River, half way between Raleigh and Fayetteville. Gen. Johnton's defeat of the enemy last Sunday, Do 19th inst., occurred at Bentonville. ear the Neuse river. By these facts we are informed that berman has been pushing towards Raligh in two columns, one moving due Vorth from Fayetteville, and the other paroled. orthwest from Newbern. Gen. Hardee bught the former, and Gen. Johnston the
