THE PASSING OF THE MARRIAGE.

The sad pageant has come and gone, the remains of one, the history of whose noble deeds and kindly nature will be a cherished and glorious memory to the end of time...

And glancing at the sad cortege, what a lesson was presented for mad ambition: how in the presence of that sombre procession, that cold form, earthly pomp and grandeur was compelled to stand chastened and rebuked!

THE PRESSURE UPON THE NEW EXECUTIVE.

We doubt the propriety, so soon after the advent of the new Executive, and for one who has been passing some resolutions highly complimentary to General Blair...
