But no, it seems by the Rev John S Deale, Captain Thomas impossible to control the tendency in this direction, for no sooner does a man get i position, a place where he inspires "great by the Rev. Mr. Calloway, Henry C. Almost every brigadier by the time he gets the long coveted star, has as many swords as our old friend, bimmo Bocgen pected to ride five at once in Dan Rice's in Baltimore. circus. The thing is ridiculous.

Now, let us ask, in the name of all that i is republican, of all that constitutes true independence of spirit, of equality, must this toadying to official greatness go out Is it not the fact that, in most cases, these EMPORIUM AND GALLERY OF PAINT officials themselves assume enough, without having the people fostering in every way possible these very assumptions! If there was one feature to mar the pleasure experienced at the great review the other | eatire cure from Humphrey's Hamespathic Speday, was it not witnessing the insolence case No. 25. And this thing of instituting odious distinctions, of pandering to eminence, does not as we have already intimated, step at concessions, at chlations to those who have dazzled us with military exploits. So much of a habit has it become to offer incense to superiors, that hardly and go, with the rapidity of figures of any association of men can be created in | market to-morrow. But in view of what has, been happening in our country of late, in this very direction, we repeat it, a more timely and wise rebuke could not be administered. It is an earnest of better things. It is evidence of the strongest kind, that the President appreciates the tendencies of things; that he eminently; comprehends his own position; its true, responsibilities; and that he is not to be beguiled of his convictions, or honest of "Democracy" that is badly needed at

BY THE BARD OF MARRIE HALL. Might had hung her sable mantle. Festioned o'er the frewning hosts. While the distant landscape's summit Showed the bettle's want ming about Sleep had sought the bleak encampment. Weighing weary eyelics down, And the stient picket listened To a soft approaching sound. Johnny Reb. I come to meet you-We were brothers -oace sgain have come unarmed to meet you. Let me not be heard in value; Though your rags attent descious To your failing, dying cause, Let us cease this flares commotion And resume our spicient laws. Let us drep the warlike trappings And renew out civil dress. Happy in the common country You and I were taught to bless: The picket leaning on his musket

Pondered o'er what he had heard Then among his commades hastened Shouting, "Feace," a magic word. Boon it rearhed the Scuthern chieftain And recalled the days of yore When he lived in perce and plenty; Contrast now he must deplere: Then he saw his regred a my Which he loved of earth most dear. And he saw each brigade dwindle Till he shed a bitter teer. They were now in droves deserting. At the thir Northern's call For they heard them tell the story Of the suits at Marble Hall; Then the chieftain bereft of glory,

Said, "I will surrender all, And permit myself and soldiers To buy clothes at Marble Hall." SMITH BROS. & CO., Clothiers, Merchant Tailors and Dealers in Gent's Furnishing Goods. RACKEY SAVED! HONEY SAVED! IVI MONEY SAVED! MUNEY BAVED SPRING AND SUMMER SPRING AND SUMMER
