Showed the bettle's wancering shosts Sleep had sought the black excurstments Weighing weary eyelide down. And the risent picket listened To a soft approaching sound. Johany Reb. I come to meet you... We were brothers-care again I have come unarmed to meet you, Let me not be heard in vain; Though your rags attest develop-To your failing, dying cause, Let us ceuse this flerce commetica And resume our ancient laws. Let us drop the warlike trappings And renew our civil dress. Hippy in the common county You and I were taught to bless: The picket leaning on his muslet

Pondered o'er what he had beard Then among his comrades hastened Shouting, "feace," a maric word. Soon it reached the Southern chieftain And recalled the days of yere, When he lived in peace and pleaty; Contrast now he must deplore. Then he saw his ragged a my Which he loved of earth most dear. And he saw each brigade dwindle Till he shed a bitter teer. They were now in droves deserting, . At the ridy Northern's call.
