have come unarmed to meet you,

We were brothers-once again

Let me not be heard in value:

Though your rags attest develop

To your failing, dying cause,

Let us cease this derre commotice

And resume our ancient laws.

Let us drep the warlike trappings

You and I were taught to bless;

The picket leaning on his mushet

And recalled the days of yore,

When he lived in peace and plenty;

and he saw each brigade dwindle

They were now in droves deserting.

Contrast new he must deplored
