PORMAL SURRENDER OF KIRBY SMITH. WAR DEPARTMENT.

Washington, June 23-8.40 P. M Major Gen. John A. Dix, New York: The Navy Department has just received official despatches from Admiral Thatcher, dated at Galveston, June 8th, reporting that on the 1st of this month, General Brown, commanding the United States forces, garrisoned and occupied Brownsville. On the 2d of June the rebel Gens. Kirby Smith and Magrader met in the harbor of Galveston Gen. A. J. Smith, representing Major General Canby, and Gen. Kirby Smith then and there signed upon at New Orleans. On the 5th of June, full and formal possession of Galveston was delivered up to the United States forces, and the flag of the Union raised. On the 8th of June Admiral Thatcher went ashore and was cordially received by the rebel naval and military authorities, who requested a part of the United States naval force to remain there for their protection. Galveston is before this time strongly garrisoned by the United States land forces, sent forward by Gen. Canby. Gen. Sheridan is probably there in person. The President's proclamation raising the blockade will be immediately issued EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War. Proclamation.
