

VOLUMB II.—NUMBER 12.

BALTIMORB, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 15, 1865.

[From the Tribune.]

Our reperter fortunately occupies a ing "items" in abundance. Luckily the filled the air, making it dark as twilight, windows of the Museum were unclosed, rest, a stream of spermaceti ran from his

MAGERIE.

as well as I could by taking the mattress

from the bed and erecting it as a bulwark .

When the fire had eaten its swift way and acreams went up from the doomed

SELF-EMANCIPATION OF THE LIONS.

PARTICIPATION OF THE SERPENTS.

The base of the rods of the serpents'

THE SNAKES AND MONKEYS IN TROUBLE

windows, shivering with dread and afrai

The monkeys were perched around the to jump out. The snakes were weithing about, crippled and blistered by the heat, darting out their forked tongues and expressing their rage and fear in the most

THE AAPPY PARILY SAPTISED WITH PIRE.

The "Happy Family" were experien-

The members of the delectated convoca-

the depths below, which by this time

CONTINUATION OF THE STRUGGLE.

fakes were his expiring spasms.

With a simultaneous bound, the lion

PRICE TWO CENTS.

TO THE BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

DETROIT TRADE CONVENTION. vention to-day, J. A. Bower, of Chicago, 200,000 mem. He said, the fact was, that, Eleven Other Buildings Destroyed from the Committee on Commerce, made when visited by Secretary Cameron, be a report commending to the consideration expinied the difficulty of marching in of the legislative bodies of the various Tennessee by divergent lines, one to TIRI BICHLING SUND IN THE MISSELA States and of the nation, the following Nashville, and the other to East Tennessubjects:-Construction of the Illinois see, with a force largely outnumbered by River and Bay Ship Canals; Improved the rebel armies confronting him. ment of the Fox and Wisconsin rivers: couragement of regular lines of steam- incorrect form. ships to countries upon this continent and Europe; and regulation of our commerce and carrying trade with the Canadas and Europe as will best promote the general interests of our own people. The report also sake the Convention to of building up our common country such a manner as to give us union, prosperity and peace. The report was adopted on motion of Mr. Scammon. The Convention agreed to adjourn at o'clock this afternoon, size die. The debate was then resumed on the Reciprocity Treaty. Mr. Howe, of Nova Scotia, had consen to place on the journal his report on a ship canal from the St. Lawrence river to the Hudson. Mr. Alexander's report in favor of a decimal system of weights and measures, was referred to a special committee from the States and British Provinces.

Mr. Alexander's report in favor of a national Board of Trade, was referred to a special committee to report forthwith.

and harber improvements, reported a resto-day. olution recognising the national character which offered facilities for conducting the commerce of the country from which the Government derives large revenues, and stating that as the sense of the Convention that it is to the interest as well as the duty of the General Government to make such improvement on such rivers and harbors as necessity may develope Wartent.

tive from loyalty and allegiance due from A MOTHER PLEADING FOR HER him as a British American. The resolutions recommending the ne-

after which the body adjourned size die. THE 7-30 LUAN.

sriptions to-day to the 7-30 loan, as telegraphed to Jay Cooke, subscription, agent, amount to $4,516,500, including the following :- Boston National Bank, Boston, $200,000: Farmers' National Bank, Lancaster, Pa., $100,000; Commonwealth National Bank, N. Y., $100,-000; National Bank of Richmond, Va., $100,000; 31 National Bank, Cincinnati, $100,000; 1st National Bank of New Al bany, $100,000; 3d National Bank of St Louis, $100,000; 4th National Bank, N. Putnam & Co., Boston, $200,000; 2d National Bank, Chicago, $236,000, 3d Nachants' Bank of Cleveland, $150,000 -There were 3,163 individual subscription: for small amounts.

FROM MEXICO. NEW ORLEANS, July 14.-Mexican ac

vices of the 8th are received. Gers. Lopez and Olivier had returned from their pursuit of the remnant of Na gret's forces, which had generally dis- Washington Sterbanded in Texas.

on the Rio Grande.

side of the Rio Grande, and the American est yet paid aloes the cirse of the war. - pear to fell, but apparently sunk into the authorities had been constrained by the protests of the Imperial Government to order Cortenas to keep to his house -- | the sugar-care has recently been introduced News from the interior of Mexico show the Empire to be in a peaceful state. Max- oles, distinct in nature, such as sugar, molasses the parallel of Broadway, still remained, Imillian is striving to improve the count and encourage education.

Matamoras in great numbers. Rebels are still arriving in Mexico from the United will work quite a revolution in sugar making States.

DA APPOINTED.

WASHISTON, July 14.—The Postmaster General has notified the Provisional Governors that the postal service will be resumed on all the lines of railroads in the South as soon as soon as they respectively certify that the routes are in proper condition for that purpose.

The President has issued his proclamation appointing Judge William Marvin Provisional Governor of Florida. the appointment of other Provisional Governors for the Bouthern States, and for similar purposes. FROM ALABAMA.

gather them.

NEW ORLEADS, July 13.—The Times' special correspondent says that citizens along the railroad by the sere. from the interior announce that Mr. Par-

IN REGARD TO HIS ESTIMATE OF CONFLIGRATION IN NEW YORK. TROUPS NEEDED TO SUBDUE THE REBELLION.

given in bonor of General Sherman and General Coz, at Columbus yesterday. General Sherman alluded to the charge BARNUM'S that while he was in command in Ken-DETROIT, July 14.—In the Trade Com- tucky, he had demanded for the campaign.

In one of these he had but 4,300 men to improvement of the canals of New York; meet an opposing force of 19,000 mem.—) cheapening railroad freights and the in- When saked by Secretary Cameron how IRSPIDATION OF THE PAY MAN AND WOMEN crease of the capacity of railroads to carry many men were needed, he replied: "For reight; relief of our shipping and railroad the present campaign 60,000 men, and beinterests from several Government taxa- fore you can reduce the South to subject Their Escape from the Flames. tions; improved system of surveys and tion you must have 200,000 men. This soundings; improvement in custom houses statement, made in Secretary Cameron's and light bouses; early improvement of military family, was afterwards published. Western rivers and harbors; judicious en- in the Eastern papers in a distorted and

From Fortress Monroe.

Macon Telegraph says that all the jewelry belonging to citizens which was sent give the weight of its influence in favor off on the approach of the Federal army, of dollars. | afterwards captured near Athens, has been turned over and will be in Macon again in a few days. Also, the gold captured from the Central Railroad Company last April, has been returned by the military authorities. The U.S. steamer Yuntic has arrived from Norfolk and will soon sail for the West Indies.

The U.S. steamer Casandra, from New | Orleans, for New York, put into Hampton Roads this morning and landed General Opdyke, and several other passengers. The steamer Robert Morris, from Baltimore, arrived this morning. Gen. Mulford reached here this morning from Richmond, on business. He is in fine health. The steamer Norfolk, from City Point, with the 8th Minnesota regiment, for Mr. Brown, from the committee on river Baltimore, en route for home arrived here

General Toombs has succeeded in making of the navigable rivers and lake harbors, his way out of this country, and is now

PLASTERER'S CONVENTION. er's Convention to day, the manner in which ornamental work is done in certain cities by men not in the trade was dis- & Raymond, clothiers, and by the billiard quarter past noon, when I observed a rush of half a mile. cussed at considerable length, and a moand as the condition of the Treasury will tion was unanimously carried, after the 1st of January next no plasterer will work The report of Mr. Howes, of Nova for bosses who shall not put up their own Scotia, was important in the announce- ernaments. Mr. O'Connor of New York, grand. Vast volumes of smoke poured. The giantess, Anna Swan, stood at the for a moment, apparently amazed at their ment it contained, that the annexation of Chairman of the Committee on the State the British Provinces to the United States, of the Trade, submitted a report in which tongues of flames rose from the middle of down in columns. I took her to the Bel- and roaring delefully. had no place in the minds of the people of he suggested local organizations, to take the Provinces, and that any one who immediate action on the question of lathshould go to the hustings as an advocate ing and ornamental work, and that the HARRISBURG, July 13 .- Mrs. Gregory, getiation of a reciprocity treaty received the mother of one of the men to be hung the unanimous vote of the Convention, in Philadelphia on the 11th of August, was in consultation with the Governor last night. She plead earnestly for the pardon or commutation of her son's sen-PHILADELPHIA, July 11.-The sub- tence. No definite answer was given.

> FIRE AT CINCINNATI. CINCINNATI, July 13 .- O. S. Murray's | soap factory, No. 7 Genesee street, was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $15,000; insured for about $6,000. usmister's carriage and wagon factory, immediately adjoining, was also damlaged. Loss $3,000; partly insured.

RESIGNATION OF COMMISSIONE OF PATENTS. WASHINGTON, July 13 .- David P. Ho Y., $200,000; 9th National Bank, N. Y., loway. Commissioner of Patents, resigned $338,350; National Bank of Newburg, to-day. His determination was suddenly

$100,000; Montpelier National Bank of formed, and was caused by some disagree-Montpelier, Vt., $50,000; Brewster, ment with Secretary Harlan, and a belie. Sweet & Co., Boston, $100,000; C. A. that the Secretary intended to supersede him at some future time, so he decided to held the position for four years and a half. tional Bank, Chicago, $100,000; Hanna, and was a faithful, evergetic officer. Hart & Co., Pittsburg, $100,000; Mer- | seph Theacker, of Ohio, is spoken of likely to be his successor.

TREATMENT OF OUR PRISORERS -The Goterament has dispatched a prominent gentle man to Andersonville, Ga., for the purpose of end. investigating the charges of cruci treatment towards Union prisoners confined in the camp there, in order that the parties guilty of the barbarities may be brought to speedy instice. It is understood that several parties who stand charged with the atrocities are now mader arrest and in confinement ---

TCBACCO -The market for the Indian weed Cortinas lately captured two steamers is very saimsted, with a light supply and brisk demand. The following prices were obtained at Tuesday's sale at the Beabrook The Commercial says that Cortenas warehouse: Lurs, $5 7820. Leaf, common, steeple of a church. In a few moments positively, and in a manner officially, $3a15; good, $15:37. The last price was this sunk slewly down, the point still regiven for a fine article, the property of Mr. | maining upright and in position until the A. Hutabinean, and is, we believe, the bight whole section disappeared. It did not ap-

ASTA new process of boiling the jaice of in the miand of Antigna, West ladies, which does not convert the juice into separate artiand rum, but into a solid compound contain- and all eyes were turned in its direction ing all these articles in a single mass, from It was a very large, high portion, reachwhich, afterwards the refiger extracts the ing to the uppermost story. About five A great number of people made unsuc Guerillas continue to swarm about various articles of commerce which it con- minutes later this great facade careened cossful attempts to enter the Astor House tales. The new process was discovered by gracefully over and slowly fell, not in to view the fire. They represented they an Esglish chemist, and it is thought that it

During the past work two duels have RESUMPTION OF POSTAL SERVICE been fought in the rest of New Orlesse. The smashed upon the pavement, sending up vented the building from being crowded IN THE SOUTHERN STATES-PRO- parties were all Creoles, and one well known a frightful spray of bricks and morter, and During the day wet blankets were placed VISIONAL COVERNOR OF FLORI- Badivides was a principal to both affairs -He came off winner in both; killing his oppo- old Museum. nent in one instance, and probably fatally wounding the other in the absomen. The cause seems to have arisen out of the war .-The two injured men were returned Confederates who twitted the victor as a stay at home, he never having been in the army.

The editor of the Milwaukee Newshat been shown a watch, now the property of Mrs. D. U. Lee, of Henricon, Dodge county, and once the property of the celebrated Maj Andre. There are but four figures on the face: 3, 6, 9 and 12, the other divisions being indicated by a little gold star. On the back, damage has been done to this venerable The inside, are directions for winding, and the and historical church edifice. form is precisely the same as that used in | following: "Maj Andre, 1774," engraved in | that in someogeones of the want of demand northeastern corner of the Museum build for from since the cometion of the war, every ing. immediately under Groot's restanfrom establishment in the Lebigh Valley has blown out one, two or more stacks, and pla trem to piled up on the banks of the sanal and man in Lynn has a See apple orshirt which has been much troubled by the some' appointment to the Governorship is sanker worms. A short time slees he girdled natisfactory. Many of the crope in the every one of the trees with an are, giving as a reason for his strange conduct, that he was consumpted Sol to long the orașes macine ral loster.

CINCINNATI, July 14 -At a feetival Immense Destruction of Property.

_____

Burning of Animals and Curiosities!

[From the New York Evening Post, July 13 Shortly after noon to-day a terrible fire hatless. occurred in the American Mugeum, extending rapidly to the adjacent buildings FORTRESS MOSROE, July 13 .- The on Broadway, Ann street, and Fulton street. The aggregate loss is probably one million of dollars, on which there is an , insurance to the amount of half a million

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE. At thirty-five minutes past twelve o'clock a fire caught beneath Groot's restaurant in Ann street, at the corner of the Museum building. In about two minutes, the flames burst out in Jones' shoe store. Nos. 10 and 12 Ann street, with every indication of an extensive conflagration. The fire companies were immediately on the ground and promptly set to work. with apparent success; but the smoke was

Museum building was completely out o At 121 o'clock the flames burst out the second story of the Museum, just over the restaurant, and spread with amazing rapidity, fed by the light and combustible

RAPID SPREAD OF THE FIRE. In a moment the fire mounted to the third story, and at forty minutes pas twelve burst out of every window on the Ann street side of the Museum. It gave way apparently on the two lower floors. but raged furiously in the two upper stories. Part of the roof fell in five minutes later, and the neighboring buildings on Ann street were attacked.

The firemen rallied in great force, by the flames were fanned by a strong breeze which swept them over the roofs of the

The building was occupied by Rogers | I came back from my dinner at about a brutes, which were heard at the distance saloon of Wallace & Reeves. It was down the stairs. Proceeding at once to entirely destroyed, except the walls, the engine room in the basement. I saw the which were still standing at two o'clock. I fire directly over the boiler, and then went and his mate sprang egainst their bars. THE SCENE.

out of the windows on the Broadway and head of the stairs, as if awcoming from suddes liberty, stood in the middle of the street, and every other place which com Jours. manded a view of the scene; while twenty steam and hand fire engines poured incesmen to severe suffering.

NO PERSON INJURED. before the Museum caught.

It was very fortunate that the fire oceurred at mid-day. Had it taken place! It is reported that an excited individual evidently considerably alarmed at the in the evening, when the Museum is 'rushed into the room where the tiger was 'excresively torrid scene, which was blazcrowded with visitors, and the theatre confined and was about to break the cage, ing through the room. Under the circumcrammed with spectators, the limited when he was restrained by persons in the stances he found it impossible to take it means of egress would have proved in apartment. Great consternation prevail- cooler. mentably insufficient. THE CURIOSITIES AND ANIMALS.

many of the curiosities contained in the is now momentarily expected. anticipate it by resigning. Holloway bas Museum, and the living animals on exhibition were speedily destroyed. The "Happy Family" of cats, rats, pigeons, monkeys and parrots, cazed in the centre of the fifth floor, soon became very unhappy, and departed this tife. It was impossible to save any of the poor creatures. The whales, also, came to an untimely

THE FALL OF THE PROME. At fifteen minutes before two o'clock the front of the Museum fell in three different sections, one after the other. first to fall was the part parallel with Broadway, which went over in one mass falling flat on the pavement of the street, and then, and not till then, breaking up into innumerable fragments. Another section was left in the shape an elongated triangle, and not unlike the earth. This was exactly acalogous to the fall or sinking of the spire of Chichester Uathedral in England a few years ago. The section of the front wall facing on Park Row and at a slight deviation from among the burning ruins, but out on were the guests of the house, but an "ex-Broadway. It fell as a trap door on a pert," officer Devoy, who knew the boarda vast cloud of smoke. This finished the on the windows of the edifice, to preven

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH. At about a quarter to one o'clock the ned to play upon the edifice until the reach near $700,000. Museum and the other buildings fronting on Broadway had been consumed. The pillars of the church are slightly flaked by the intense heat, but no further

THE SCRNE FROM AND STREET. It is now definitely ascertained that the The Allestewn (Pa.) Democrat says fire proceeded from the boiler room, in the rant, on Ann street; at 12 35 P. M. the

The roof of the Museum had now fal- conflagration a few were of great interest. his stomach and let out the greater part len, and the interior of the building was One fireman was seen emerging from of his entrails to the light of day. like the crater of a volcano. A stream of the building with a stuffed owl in his remaining alligator became involved in a heated air issued from the top, and was hands. Another fastened on one of the controversy with an anaconds and joined borns eastward by the breeze directly wax figures. Several other curiosities the meles in the centre of the blanks apart over the block, carrying with it light ar- have been saved, and will doubtless be ment. tiches, pieces of burning wood, shingles, restored to Mr. Bernum. Jeff. Davis' &c. One man on Ann street, not far petticoats (1) were seen hanging upon a At this moment the floor, undermined to the peril of all estately."

shingle, and knocked down. Others fire broke out. were in much darger by the pieces of burning material falling on their beads our agrowter's vision or LIFE ARI and clething. This served to clear the street, so that | the firemen were lest masters of the situ- froom on the south side of Ann street, cor-At half past one came a crash resound- look immediately into this compartment; ing like the explosion of a powder maga- and no sooner was he apprised of the fire zine. The whole wall on the Ann street than he repaired there, confident of find- pidly baking brown. side had fallen. A cloud of dust and smoke and rendering it impossible to descry ob- and he had a perfect view of almost the carcase down the sides of the building, jects at short distances The fire next communicated to the roof lowing is his statement what of followed, on a colossal scale. of Swift's book-bindery, No. 14 and also in his cwn larguage: No. 16, the publishing house of Dick & Fitzgerald, and gutted them completely. At fifteen minutes before two, another crash was heard. The Broadway front had fallen, and it was now a clear view over the whole burning mass into Broad

AN EXPLOSION AND A PANIC. There were several minor panica during the fire. The sound of an explosion was heard about half past one o'clock, and immediately at least a thousand people scampered out of the way. A great number of men fell down and at least a hundred hats were lost. Boys were even going around with half a dozen hats on their heads, and more hapless men were

"A LION IN THE WAY." A report was started at one time that an escaped lion from the Museum was rushing down Broadway, and the resul was the sudden flight of a few nervou people, who, imparting their terror to others, brought about quite a stampede. THIEVES ARRESTED.

During the progress of the tire two men dressed as soldiers were seen coming ou of the shoe store in Ann street, each with five or six pairs of shoes under their coats. They were immediately arrested and forwarded to the station bouse.

One man stepped into the clothing store of Rogers & Raymond, on Broadway, and cooly putting on a linen wrapper was about leaving the store, when a clerk blinding, and for some minutes the whole stopped him. Another man took off his coat, but on a fine frock coat and putting gan to manifest much uneasiness. his own over it, attempted to escape. He white or silver for ran up and down was arrested by a policeman. A portion of Knox's stock of bats was to escape. The lions also paced hurriedtaken out of the store. The crowd seized a large number of fine Panama hats, with which they escaped.

A PANIC IN FULTON STREET At ten minutes to three o'clock the rear walls on Fulton street fell, making a loud noise. The crowd, believing an explesion had occurred, field in the utmost ter- barst through the transoms of the doors, ror. No damage, however, was done. CURIOSITIES BAYED.

been saved beside the fat woman, (who their teeth, at the same time sending) were the live seal and a case of rare coins. were almost human in their agony. STATEMENT OF AN EMPLOYEE. adjoining buildings on Broadway, and in From Mr. Oscar Kohn, the aquarian of the top of the door, and commenced to PITTSBURG, July 14.—In the Plaster- a few minutes the fire had gained a hold the Museum, we obtain the following lick the top of the cages, the tumult lars of the conflagration:

> to the ground floor and saw the flames which gave way, and came down with a The scene at this moment was fearfully 'burst from the ladies' private room.

RESCUE OF THE SEAL. sant streams of water upon the flaming from the burning building by a Brooklyn lion locked together in close combat. mass. As the flames gained strength and fireman, Mr. C. C. Pearson, of Hose 1. volume the heat became intense, forcing He was dragged out by the flukes, placed back the crowd, but subjecting the fire- in a champagne basket, and conveyed on care had also crumbled, and the largest a car. to Fulton Market, where a couve | box constrictor-about 20 feet long and as nient fish tank was found, in which he thick as a man's body-was also engaged So far as can now be ascertained, none was placed, and thus restored to his proper in deadly struggle with the liquess. of the visitors in the Museum, nor per- element. He did not seem to at all ap- THE POLAR BEAR IM A WARM PLACE. sons employed by Mr. Barnum, were in preciate the attentions he was receiving. The polar bear had shrunk to the coolest jured. The slarm caused by the discovery but snapped at his preserver and all who corner, with half his hair burned from his of the fire in the restaurant on Ann street, came within reach. One of the passers snowy coat, and there sat wonderingly was the signal for a general flight, and it by was nearly deprived of his nether gazing upon the scene before him. A is believed that everybody escaped safely garments by a nip from the sharp fangs of customed, as he had been, to deal with the creature. BARNUM'S TIGER. ed for a few moments.

Mr. Barnum was absent at the time of The sudden leap of the flames from the conflagration, he being in Connec. floor to floor made it impossible to remove cut. He was at once telegraphed for, and PANIC AT A FARO TABLE.

At the "Club House" on the corner o Ann street, a number of men were engage ed in a game of faro. No sooner was the cry raised than they all decamped, leav- | cing an amount of beatitude which was | ing home their supplies in men of war. It | then retired. Mr. Mix addressed Mary, ing the rooms open for the crowd to enter, evidently too cordial for philosophical en- seems probable that this request will be the eldest daughter, said he had lately who were not slow in despoiling the sideboard of whiskey, choice segars and

THE MUSEUM IN RUINS. At four o'clock a dark mist of vapor and two, and busily engaged in impregnating odium. The real obstacle to silk grow- proposition required time for considera smoke, mingled occasionally with fiashes his agonized system with his own venom. ling seems to be the slow growth of tion. He replied that he was pleased f fire, marked the site where Barnum's The joyful rat had lost his tail by a fall. the mulberry. The worms will live and that she asked for suitable time for re-Museum stool at noon. The streets were ing bar of iron, and the beatific rabbit, work in most countries, but they want flection, and in order to afford her the covered with the debris of the ruins, and perforated by a red hot mail, looked as if mulberry leaves, and nobody is willing needed opportunity to think of his propovigorous streams were played on the nothing would be a more grateful than a to plant orchards which will not be sal, he would step into the next room and walls and the scattered bulwark of the cool corner in some Esquimaux farm-yard.

The leaves on the trees in the church- tion were all huddled together in the botyard presented the withered appearance tom of their cage, which suddenly gave, which marks them in the fall, owing to way, precipitating them out of view into The blocks extending in a direct and were also blazing like the fabled Tophet. square line from the Museum to the parallel buildings in Fulton street, presented Meanwhile the lion and the tiger were GALLART COLOR-BEARER.-An incident Wethersfield. In a few weeks he received a mass of dilapidated buildings, the walls continuing their contest, now with the connected with the battle of Gettysburg her reply, which is probably the most la alone remaining to show their character, alvantage on one side, now on the other; that has never yet been published, but, conic epistle ever penned. Here is the Now and then the terrific sounds of tot and the bon was slowly tightening his certainly deserves to be, as it is the his- model letter, which was soon followed by tering walls were heard, and the people fatal coils round the panting body of the tory of a gallant action that ought not to a welling: in the street, warned by the alarm, would lieness, which, however, bit and strug | be unrewarded On the last day of the rush to some place of safety. THE ASTOR HOUSE. hinge, and remained intact until it was ers, discovered the ruse, and thus prethem from being fired.

It is estimated that the loss will not fal heat became so intense that it set the much short of a million and a quarter .-Several fire companies turned their while that on buildings, stock and maattention upon the building, and contin- chinery in the different buildings will · THE BUILDING Belonged to the Astor estate, and was > number of years to run. The contents rolled out on the floor, with the rushing serves. were insured for about $75,000 in various and steaming water. The whale died city offices, whose policies averaged about pretty easily, having been pretty well tursed from a pleasure trip to Washington.-The engine was entirely bricked in, and the engine room lined throughout INCIDENTS. Among the hundreds of incidents of the ment of shattered glass, which cut open space reserved on the top as a look-out, I Museum was out, another commenced anxiously observed the animals in the op- West Forty-fourth street, destroying nine posite room. Immediately opposite the bouses and turning out seventy-five famiwindew through which I gazed, was a large cage containing a lion and lioness. ies. Loss estimated at $50,000. To the right hand was the three-storied ABUTHER FIRE. cage, containing monkeys at the top, two kangaroos in the second story, and a "hap-Seventy-Five Families Homeless. by family," of rate, cate, adders, rabbits,

'very beavens.

ner of Broadway, the windows of which bear, upon a white-hot square of sheet-

Protecting myself from the intense heat same at $580,000, and the insurances

writhing mass was launched into a gulf of red and yellow fire, sending up a whirl-

The last object I saw was the polar!

hide, and standing stark and stiff, and ra-

etc , in the lower compartments. [From the New York Herald.] To the left of the lion's cage was the tank containing the two vast alligators, afternoon a fire broke out in the two-story large armics, both Confederate and Fed: 'to his r and jecke', with orange trimmings and still further to the left, partially hid- frame building No. 317 West Forty-fourth and occupied different parts of the country alr, hand brezzed with left expenses in containing the great white whale, which street, between Eighth and Ninth ave for long periods. The fencing, the farm rieal of the ab disair a, and helping to eduhas created such a furore in our sight see- nues, occupied by J. Ackerman & Son, ing midst for the past few weeks. Upon | manufacturers of the extract of coffee. the floor was caged the boa constrictors. The whole of the building, with the most farm buildings, were destroyed. The bat anacondas and rattlesnakes, whose heads | part of the contents, was destroyed. would now and then rise menacingly tal loss seven thousand dollars; insured through the top of the cage. In the exfor five thousand dollars. treme right was the cage entirely shut ! from my view at first, containing the Bengal tiger and the Polar bear, whose terri fied growls could be distinctly heard from behind the petition.

mated at $10,000; partly insured. PROGRESS OF THE FLAMES. The flames next spread to the frame and The configration was, as yet, confined brick buildings Nos. 331 and 323, occupied to the upper part of the building. The by John Beck as a cabinet maker's faclower walls, however, were becoming tory, which was also totally destroyed .rapidly heated, and all of the animals be-Loss estimated at $5,000. Insured for ed up: that amount in the Hamilton and Stuyvesant Insurance Companies. cage, whining piteously and endeavoris ly up and down, moaning most dismally, Jacob Ryer. Loss estimated at $3,000; and all the other beasts manifested similar | insured. uneasiness. The serpents stuck their heads up above the sill of the window and story brick tenement houses caught fire, year past, at points outside of and far dis- 'retances of self-destroit a. A mania of this writhed about in strange convulsions.

down to the third floor, and the lurid glare by Fred. Schneider, as a bakery. terants got out a great many of their arthe panic among the beasts became posi- ticles of furniture in a damaged state tively fearful. They sprang against their | Both buildings were destroyed. Loss es-The only curiosities reported to have iron bars and strove to rend them with timated at $30,000; most part insured Two frame dwellings in the rear of the was taken in charge by a policeman,) forth savage and frightened cries, which adjoining lot, Nos. 307 and 309, were considerably damaged by fire. length, when the flames burst through

LETTER PRESIDENT JOHNSON. in the three upper steries of No. 214 statement containing additional particu- reached its height. Yells, roars, howls attend the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted to the laying of the corner-stone of actual starvation most fall upon many was restricted. the Washington City Orphan Asylum, declined on account of official duties and sert the following letter: EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13, 1865. Mrs. B. P. Lee, First Directress, Washinggreat crush, releasing the beasts, which ton City Protestant Orphan Asylum: Ann street fronts of the Museum; huge the effects of the smoke, which then came floor, lashing their sides with their tails be able to accept your kind invitation and ered, then, and in the meantime, some attend the laying of the corner-stone of plans of permanent racief may be devised, the building, and smaller darts of fire mout House. Coming back, I found it THE LION AND TIGER IN CLOSE CONTEST. your new building, but my official duties and set to work. caught the transparences and signs; three impossible to enter the upper stories.— A horrible howl in the right hand cor- will prevent. I beg you to convey to the Our purpose, in this connection, is simfloors of the building No. 213 Broadway Miss Swan lost everything except the ner of the room, a yell of indescribable ladies of your association the assurance of ply to appeal to such of you as have been were a mass of light flame; fireman and clothes she wore. She had in her trunk agony, and a crashing, grating sound in- my deep interest in and sympathy with blessed by a merciful Providence, to give for americal would be treated as a fugi- hours of labor be reduced to eight per day. property owners were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and polar bear were springing up and about one hundred and twenty dollars in dicated that the tiger and tiger and the tiger and tiger an down ladders to remove such portable gold, some greenbacks, and all her cloth- stirred up to the highest pitch of excite- charge I desire to express my sympathy relieving this large class of suffering Virarticles as could be passed out; a tremen- ing. About one hundred people are ment. Then there came a great crash as with them at the great loss which they ginians from the impending hundred done crowd filled the Park, the west side thrown out of employment, many of whom of the giving way of the bars of the cage. have suffered in being deprived of the their beloless state. Broadway, Vesey street, Barelay have been in Mr. Barnum's employ for The flames and smoke momentarily rolled care and affection of parents. Thrown so We will simply add that any contrib back, and for a few seconds the interior of early, to a large extent, upon their own tions, in money or food, which you may the room was visible in the lurid light of resources and efforts, they should feel make through John L. Marye, or Julia. "Ned," the learned seal, was rescued the flames, which revealed the tiger and their need of education, industrious and L. Stansbury, will be faith: ully and their need of education, industrious and L. Stansbury, will be faith: ully and their need of education.

virtuous habits, and look to Him who is a consly applied to the desired object. father to the fatherless. I am, madam, truly your friend, ANDREW JOHNSON.

SILKS TO BE MORR COSTLY. ADISEASE AMONG THE SILK WORMS. The London Pall Mall Gazette says: "The silk-breeders of France are, we are told, in a position of the greatest distress. A strange disease, which has retime-notably in 1633 and 1710-has, municated with at No 15 South street. appeared among the worms from time t since 1560, recommenced its ravages, till over Franklin Bank, Baltimere, up to t. couly the walrus and the seal in the cold | blue waters of the Arctic regions, he was the price of seed has risen ten fold, and the demand for mulberry leaves has so COURTING TWO HUNDRED YEARS fallen off that the planters threaten to cut down the trees and use the lands for some refitable cultivation. The disease shows | those days, is the famous courtship of the itself, according to a petition analyzed in Rev. Stephen Mix, at Whethersheld. He

ing every bair from the cat's body. The except Japan, is not temporary, but may ell by effering his heart and hand. She felicitous acuter was slowly burning in last as long as the potato rot and the blushingly replied that so important a gin to bear for five and twenty years. amoke a pipe with her father, and she would not be a matter of surprise | could report to him. costly as under the Roman empire, and a  $t_{\text{sage to Miss Mary that he was ready <math>t_{\text{off}}$ silk dress as complete a test of wealth as her answer, she came in and asked for it was two hundred years ago."

gled, lacerating the striped skin of its fight, when the rebels, massing some 14,-; altersary terribly. The floor was already (000 men on our left centre, made a charge crimson with their blood, while the com | which, for desperate courage, is almost | mingling hisses, howle, yells and rosts unparalleled in the history of warfare, but the 1st of December, 16.85, and proved to utterly surpassed all efforts at description. | were beaten back with awful slaughter, be compounded of the most congenial ele-THE WHALK AND ALLIGATORS IN TOR- leaving thousands of prisoners in our ments. Mix was paster of that paralise hands, and the field strewn thick with of enions for forty-four years. At this moment the flames rolled again their wounded and dead, the 19th Massainto the room and then again retired. The chusetts infantry was among those who whale and alligators were by this time bore the brunt of the onset. They were suffering dreadful torments. The water opposed directly by a Virginia regiment, in which they swam was literally boiling. and as the two forces came in contact with The alligators dashed fiercely about en-leach other, and fought with bayonet and desvoring to escape, and opening and clubbed muskets. Thomas C. Jellison, the shutting their great jaws in ferocious tor- color bearer of the gallant 19th, having ture; but the poor whale, almost boiled, lost his sword in the melee, rushed up to easterly front of St. Paul's Church on The loss in curiosities cannot be replaced, with great ulcers bursting from his blub- the color-sergeant of the Virginians, and bery sides, could only feebly swim about, putting into play the flexor and biceps descit is caused by the decision of the Sa though blowing excessively, and every muscles of his right arm, knocked him preme Court, exempting United Hasten secu now and then sending up great fountains down, and captured the flag, bearing it ritles from texation. The latter were listed safely off the field. The State authorities in 1864. At length crack went the glass sides of | of Massachusetts should hunt this man up held by Mr. Barnum, on a lease having a the great cases, and whale and alligators and reward his brave conduct as it de- to the military satherities for a restoration

The ecquettish Mrs. L--- has just reused up before. A few great gasps and a | Bhe only took with her forty two dresses, convulsive flap or two of his mighty twenty shawle, nineteen bonnets, and two | handred pairs of gloves. "Surely," said a triesd, who happened to be present when she One of the alligators was killed almost immediately by falling across a great frag- was uspacking, "you did not take all that peasable my dear. I left behind me all that was enmbers mes." "Ab, 30% l 80%:retand, The Boston Post is probably the coly Democratic paper in the country that would

eall upon its readers to "remember that the ever-living principles of Democracy touch that brought home with him a pet " which had the either own no allegisace to any perty. CLOSE OF THE THRILLING SURRE.

from Nassau, was struck on the head by lamp post in Fulton street soon after the by flame, gave way with an awful crash, APPEAL FOR AID. and the living, struggling, howling.

> wind of smoke, sparks and cinders to the Blarva House, Virginia.

iron, with all the hair burned from his SUFFERING OF THE PEOPLE. Before the whale went down with the NECESSITE entire interior of the spartment. The fol- taking fire and making impromin candles To Virginians and others, Citizens of New serves to take the risk of wlaning a male York, who sympathize with the suferings of prize. NEW YORK, July 14.—The Herald the destitute poor in Virginia: CONFUSION AND STRUGGLE IN THE ME- gives a nearly complete list of the losses The undersigned, late Justices of the of the "exilers" who was bobbing round on by the fire of yesterday, estimating the Peace in and for the county of Spottey! vania, in the county of Virginia, respect-, fully submit to your attention the follow-$250,000. The Herald building escaped ing facts:

before the window, with only enough without injury. Before the fire at the Most of you remember the fact that Spottsylvania has been continuously the the dag, he would. The erowd about the tascene of extensive military operations dividual heard him qui-tly for a while, when from the spring of 1862 till the close of the a voice exclaimed, "You're one of them. war. Yet few of you will even realize, I you're a c pperhead." The excited patrict without ocular inspection, the devasta | gave ales lurab, healed up again, fixed his tion, impoverishment, and distress which eve knowingly on the flag, and distress which eve knowingly on the flag, and distress which the ravages of war have brought upon its !

In 1272 a large proportion of its laboring blacks deserted their owners. In the test sere it was a zovel and a member inter-About half past two o'clock yesterday winter of 1562, and in the spring of 1763. Testing eight to ros this onewy trooper strived ing implements, the growing crops, the rate the race he has beloed to free. He is food on hand, and, in many cases, the represented as levy a tracker than a truck ". tles of Fredericksburg and Chancellors. ville were fought during this period. In the Spring of 1:64 the immense armies of The fire extended to a frame building General Grant and of General Lee were of strength. Use oid lady went up like a adjoining No. 19, occupied by Andrew Eghting and managevering for a month balloon, and were in electricovered hand. Rieser, manufacturer of curled hair, which | within its limits. Increased and most | ing on a telegra; h with two wiles red a fall was destroyed. Stock and building esti- | calamitous injuries were inflicted upon its | 2. From this uppleasest predicanent she people in this protracted occupation. Be "was rescued by her grandson. sides these more celebrated operations, there have been frequent and destructive ter in which he save there is no more probacavalry raids and encampments in the billiy that the new Atlantic cable will be a county. The result may be briefly summ-The remnant of black labor which re- through it, and adds, that if even two or mained faithful, has been set free, and the three words per minute be transmitted, the The fire next spread east and destroyed small cropping attempted for 1765 seri- a marting power of the cable will be destroythe dwelling house No. 315, occupied by ously interfered with. More than one ed within alcety days half of the arable lands of the country are | EEThere seems to be a suicidal maniagralying waste. Its population have been litting in California at the present time. From this building the two large four obliged to seek for bread, for more than a Nearly every paper we see recording every Nos. 313 and 311. The first floor of one tant from the county. The means of its | sort prevaled to an alarming extent in 1857. was occupied as a grocery store, the other people to buy bread are exhausted, and | Un receiving the San Francisco papers in The they have no power or resources left by which to recruit their means.

Before the close of the war the authorities of the county were aiding in the support of two hundred and eighty destitute far as Chicago, where two of them got situatamilies, embracing about 1,470 persons, i tions as bell buys in howls. As the clicat of Abe class of destitute and suffering poor the atventurers had a tracted the age of is increasing daily. For obvious reasons; 12, their fathers massaid to get track of the county authorities have no ability to | them, and they were sately concented home. extend them any present kelp. Yet if speer . _ ____The Providence Trees eage: There is a The President having been invited to dy help does not come from some quarter, min of our adjusters living in this city

The Federal authorities have furnished some food for the suffering, but the amount is wholly insufficient to relieve the press ing needs of the sufferers; nor is there any certainty as to how long this source of partial aid may be continued. If the alarming necessities of the present time, say a period of four months, can be sup-DEAR MADAM-I had hoped that I might | phied until the corn growing crop is gath-

Lewis A. Boggs, late Presiding Jus

J. MERCEK WALLER, J. P. GEORGE P. GOODLOE, J. P. JOHN L. ANDREWS, J. P. L. W. DOBYNS, J. P. NATHAN TALLEY, J. P. S. S. Alsor, J. P. JOHN C. PRTTUS, J. P.

F. C. BEVERLEY, J. P. P. S .- John L. Stansbury can be com-

Among the amusing remniscences of the China Telegraph, just as the worm is made a journey to Northampton in 1636. about to begin the cocoon, so that the in search of a wife. He arrived at the breeder has the trouble of rearing for Rev. Soloman Stoddard's, informed him nothing, and has, to purchase seed, as it of the object of his wisit, and that the pressure of home duties required the ut-Repeated experiments seem to prove most dispatch. Mr. Stoddard took Lim that the only seed which can be trusted is into the room where his daughters were, that from Japan, and the breeders there- and introduced him to Mary, Ester, Chrisfore pray the State to aid them by bring- tina, Sarah, Rebekah, and Hannah, and joyment. A long tongue of tiame had granted, and also that the evil which has been settled at Whethersheld, and was crept under the cage, completely singe. spread through all silk growing countries, desirous of obtaining a wife, and conclud-silk in the next generation became car. Having smoked his pipe and sent a mes-I further time for consideration. He replied that she could reflect still longer on the AN INCIDENT AT GETTYSBURG-A subject, and send her answer by letter to

NORTHAMPTON, 1676. REV. STEPHEN MIX: Yes. The matrimonial mixture took place on

It is understood that the lifet mersage transmitted over the new Atlantic cable will be, the price of Confederate securities in Loudon. The quotations are running down so fast, that it is necessary to transmit the report by telegraph at the earliest moment or there wen't be any to transmit. DE The aggregate value of real and per senal property owned in New York is Solds. 754 356, against $634,615,890 for 1564. The

Henry A. Wies bas made application of his former estates near Norfolk, with rather a pour prospect of sacconding. Bonic of the Virginians propuse to extin put up Wies as a cancillate to E Boteta t. At a obarch in Duracte, ive, Englised, a while ago, a swall . bee- . "& D .sees or of the chancel, and the thelattic ciergeman was mashle to reso the Collagation service at the alter in consequency. The Germans do not have the word ages their places of interment; they use the from the effects beautiful and auggestive expression, "God's

atta Pia Eria Pia

Acre" and the "Court of Peace."

MISCELLARBOUS REWALTEMS AT Bliver medals are to be awarded to a bery of years ladies, who prove themselves the best croks, at a croking match now being arranged in a town out West. It is intimated that husbands will also be nut up as prizes, each man marked with the value of his real and personal estate. The girle who intend to enter upon the contest have been debating the prize question, and sak the promoters of the affair to buy wedding dresses for the chief preses instead of the silver medals. The disetseion ereated a besp of fur, outsiders offerling to add all the parapherralia for a comslate wedding ouths if any of the girls wrold The Blamford Advocate says that one the 4th, hauled up under the felds of an American flag that was finating princity in honor of the day, and street admiring the stars and stripes with the amt of a devoted patriot. He liked the fisz, he did-he was proud of the Hag, he was - and he'd stand by

A private of the Eighth Pennsylvania eavaily has been detailed to teach the regrotechoo, at Danville, Virginia A correspond. ## An exchange bara graphic description of a recent torreed a viblic blow eight or-m lover a river 500 yerds wide, cerried es thereral dwelling fourth, one and collar and a two wells, and performed several other freaks. - Ed Chlavel T. P Boulfaet aubliebes a les. surces than there will then the firmer one This to transmit over hive words per mittata

; who killed themselves gesterday." Three ye wast lade, et au of respectable parents at Torcato, etarted en a tour of chl'estration coma mecka situe. They went as proper Publicy shops and it is still in good indition for this case, what. He has wern it nel 1764 days. ## Birsage at li may stem, it is suggested with a ma applarance of probability, that agents of company a which insure against acvidents pay a bigo premium for (the-s fear e ratificad etail int in New York. The ctemptation of their eiges has a cheerful edict on the siventerous traveler. ANT The Soudest inhabitatif of Life, Pal, i mai found the other day imbedied in a piece. f blingsin us chall that had been troken for burning. It was a live frog, that was seased trom a man of mamy thinasand years. It is robable that when he either to the stringe. Labord'y recognized bit own them. town, has experience the fate of so many of the Bunthern cities, a dis a mais of rules and rebbish. Two his a north is a contranand camp couldingly with a madred new groes, who have hit or though all about the - thicker i morta if o fo to this bitter. 「多部でき もつてきゅう やまついくなされ また ごまだ estic 好き。 Garle, on metricity and, containing some wenty tire bettered tirrelari whiles, was rests by lights so and estimate a section. with all the contention. The contract as as a second as 120 (Au. The projectly was but partially in-Ber The grant Bendel feriten et the Cress. Palace was stiendid by tiree young luen Rejete cae of which wieldebe i liegaette little amailer than a c up o . Atmatrung and inched togeth or includeeded in staring.

wn all obestvers. AT Mystery magnites danger, as the fog wast; the hand that unnerves Belebazzer rived its most borri's ing induspre from the capt of a body; and death itself is not more ·midable in what we know of it, but in what The C civil Blad Bugls pronounces here the stories of Indian cutrages on the ting false, and says the stories are gotten up interested speculature, who desire to keep ex earply trains and raise the price of promona in the mountains. mend A gon of Anak has been stalking about ladelphia recently, this saturishment of natives. At the inst date, by had attained mer pendronier eititnin alf teven fest und inch, and was the despair of boot blacks The Countroller of the Currency restalevery national bank that has not done a give immediate potice of the place at leb it will redress its circulating notes, in Ser that the list of the places of redemption. r be completed and published. 二石*The Erie (Pa.) Ubjetvet tava that Me. D. Bherman, of the fement Bherman eif. Illia reported to be wrett over seven milas of dellars, and that him years ago he was TETT : Lite thorg (Va.) Republican says Levious sinte of affairs exists in Amberet toty. The night Pigalation seems to be coning rick over the country, and depredaas of every kind at a of frequent occurrence. Cerbome unpatriotic feilem, who was fend theping late, stote the tingues from all the u on bella in Lilaworth, Matta, on the night rathe 4th, and the next morning there. is they were specchless. 定面 On the Fearth of July, this the dising our servants at the Louisvalle Hotel, without orum my, filted the Erreduent's procession, sting the land, id and clerks to wait on ginn H u. J bu Dud rit, et New Lieden. g mined a ebestet (litelithes last Michael. to be war given to him by a friend who died whateen years ago, and fland four gold a give in the proket of an old rest. 京都大 man et Tantille, Mass, Was refred a substr ke a week agr. Flid has since confided to his bid, has been gradually Hag dust, and is now that be to hear the All of the field artillery about Wash. altra, including about forty batteries, is to of the distance of the test bladetsburg. nider the commant of Mejor General Hunt. gerthe weather is dry and bot in Botta and to an upprecedented degree, the monnain ritrams are drying up and the spirumen. an in desputt. AMThe United States Marshal, en the 31 or it is related 643 barrels of whithy, on the Al-

on letee. It had been brought down from grasy Landing, Llincia. DETA retition to President Jourgon, reparetting him to parded the rebutes Governor lagrath, is being extensively signed by the the rein rain and half at real passed. rer Biomeburgion In edity last, doing conderably demage to proceery in the vicinity. Der Geraeld was jun etruck at Reas. Obto, while delivering an aidress on c 4th, but he scon recutered.

An Albery paper names Better A. ert, wit an income of $85,142, as among 't in "eclid men of Troy." ger George Van Hyming, of Check, was "eburchya'd and burying ground" to desig to ang in the face by a bee in week, and died The Planes Republie states that the Unit oratty of Virginia will soon returns its D. .. | cation, with highly encouraging prespecta. John Hall, a boy of seventeen years, secompasted Shermen's and la lie Similers died on Sunday in Pittsburg, mainly because of excessive drinking. A fest poutle.