I reprethem wages or part of his crop for their labor.

To those who cannot support the con- harangues of aspiring politicians, stitution of this Government he suggests emigration from the country.

The Herald says that the 6th U.S. Inantry are to garrison Charleston. The Fourth was celebrated in August by a colored procession with banners, on which was inscribed "death to disunion and slavery," and "Freedom and Equality." In the evening there was a procession by the military, and at night a grand display of fireworks.

The railroads are being completed in the interior, and communication with the coast will soon be re-established.

Large numbers of negroes are dring in aid and the necessaries of life.

Captain Clarke, of the 2d Michigan, was shot on the 1st instant by a party of disorderly soldiers belonging to the 4th Regulars, near Macon, Georgia. He has from the large auditory present. since died.

FREE LABOR IN THE SOUTH. New York, July 16.—The Herald's Washington special despatch says that several reports received at the Freedman's Bureau from Alabama, represents that the planters are entering into labor contracts with the negroes in good faith, and but little persecution is complained of by the negroes. At Selma, however, an assist ant commissioner found it necessary, in consequence of absurd stories having been promulgated, to call a meeting of planters which was largely attended and the system adopted for the regulation of the future by the bureau, was plainly expounded which had a good effect.
