THE COMING CROPS IN THE SOUTH-WEST-THE ARMY WORM. From every portion of Louisiana, Texas. crops are abundant and look remarkably

In Alabama alone the people are gloomy but few of the plantations will produce meeting of the Club: grain enough for their own use. The teams of nearly all the planters have been carried off by the Union and Robel armies passing through the State, and the majority of the farming implements destroyed. The negroes, too, have left the country by hundreds and thousands for the cities. where they live in idleness, and support themselves by theft. This is unfortunately the case in the other States in regard to the negroes, who are becoming intole rable nuisances and vagabonds by their thieving and idling propensities.

In Louisians, corn. cotton and sugar were never more forward than they are this year. On the Red river the crop of corn will be "immense," so says the Shraveport News. In Texas com is beyond the reach of accident, and is very abundant.
