The Army and Navy—gratitude for their valuable services. 9th. Economy promised in State expenditures. 10th. South Carolina.

THE PEOPLE AND THE GOVERNMENT MONEY.

We find the following statements in the editorial columns of the Charleston Courier of July 14th:

"Persons travelling in the interior of the State are told that the United States paper money is either totally ignored or received at a high rate of premium by the people living in districts beyond Columbia."

"A gentleman recently arrived in this city states that he left his home, which is in the northern part of the State, some days ago, provided as he supposed, with an ample supply of greenbacks to defray his travelling expenses to Charleston. He proceeded to take greenbacks at the rate of one-half of their face value."

"The gentleman decried at allowing a paper currency, especially when the rates of fare were established on the basis of the present premium on gold, and on the ground that he did not intend to purchase any more of the paper money, but that he would rather take greenbacks at the rate of one-half of their face value."

"The result of all this was that the gentleman reached his city with not only an empty purse, but with some little debt."

"Another instance is reported of a gentleman coming from Richmond by the overland route. At many places on the journey he was refused admittance altogether. This nervousness to receive United States paper money usually displays itself in various forms of refusal to receive the same. The people labor under the erroneous impression that greenbacks are as valueless as the Confederate bills, and are doubtless fearful that they will be similarly served a second time. That such will be the case, however, they need not apprehend, as the following facts will show."

"In Charleston we can hardly see any gold and silver in circulation, yet every one is only too anxious to get hold of the currency of the services of the clergy. Mr. H. Schuyler Colfax and Lieut. Gov. Brown delivered speeches to immense audiences in this city on Saturday night. They start to day for Oregon."

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

BOSTON, July 20.—Harvard College commencement yesterday attracted a numerous gathering, and there were greater manifestations of interest than have attended its exercises during the past four years. The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Major General Meade and others.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA DELEGATION.

The delegation composed of Gov. B. F. Perry, J. L. Orr, formerly Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, C. J. Efford, J. W. Brady, W. Y. Leitch, and F. Bloodgett, which arrived a few days since from South Carolina, had an interview with President Johnson yesterday, ascertaining what might be done towards reorganizing the State Government, and while on the way, Mr. Perry, for the first time, learned of his appointment as the Chickasaw county, at which twenty tribes of Indians were represented. These Indians took part in the late rebellion, and now like their Southern white neighbors want a restoration of their forfeited rights and privileges. They have agreed to call representatives to another grand council, which will probably be held at Fort Smith early in August.
