Then among his comrades hastened Shouting, "Feece," a magic word. Soon it reached the Southern chieftain And recalled the flags of yere, When he lived in peace and plenty; Contrast now he must deplore; Then he saw his regred turny Which he loved of earth most dear. And he saw each brigade dwindle Till he shed a biller tear. They were now in droves deserting.

At the tisy Northern's call, For they hear I them tell the story Of the suits at Marble Hall: Then the chieftain beraft of glory. Said. "I will surrender all." And permit myself and soldiers To buy clothes at Marbie Hall." SMITH BROS. & CO., Clothiers, Merchant Tailors and Dealers in Gent's Furnishing Goods.
