THE HEALTH OF JEFF. DAVIS. FORTRESS MONROE, July 20th.-Tout correspondent has the best authority for bealth, even better than when he arrived to several others and lesser injuries to at this place. His eyesight is not impaired, and his appetite is remarkably good three times a day. There are many sumors affoat regarding Jeff, but no alteration has taken place in either his health or condition. No one is allowed to see him excep Surgeon Craven and the guard.

A review of the forces at Buffolk took place yesterday afternoon. The post commanded by Capt. George F. Dera --His aids are Captains M. Snyder, George Gibbs, J. M. Starr, Jas. A. Allis and A W. Hahn, all of the 3d New York cavalry. The review was made by Gen. O. L. Mann, accompanied by his aids, Captain Scarborough, inspector general, Lieut Howard Rogers, A. A. G., Lieut. M. Brice, A. D. C. The troops made a fine appearance, much to the satisfaction of all present.
