ONE SQUARE CONTAINS SIX LINES OF SPACE THE BATTLE FIELD. BY WM. CULLER BRIGHT.

Once this soft turf, this rivalet's saads. Were trampled by a harrying crowd, And pery heart and sumed hands Encounter'd in the bettle cloud. Ah! never shall the lead forget How gush'd the life bleed of her braves-

Gush'd, warm with hope and courses yet, Upon the soil they fought to save. Now, all is calm, and fresh, and still; Alone the chirp of flitting bird. And talk of children on the hill,

And bell of we dering kine are beard. No soletan bost goes trailing by The black-mouth'd gun and staggering wane Men start not at the battle-cry: O! be it never heard again.

Book rested those who fought; but then Who minglest in the harder strike For truths which men receive net now. Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! lingering long Through weary day and weary year. A wild and many-weepon'd throng Hang on thy front, and flank, and reat. Yet, nerve thy spirit to the proof. And blench not at thy chosen lot. The timid good may stand aloof,

The sage may frown-yet faint they not Nor heed the shaft too surely cast. The hissing, surging bolt of scorn: For with thy side shall dwell at last, The victory of endurance born.

Truth. crush'd to earth, shall rise again: The eternal years of God are hers: But Error, wounded, writhes with pain. And dies among his worshippers. Yes, though thou lie upon the dust. When they who help d thee flee in fear. Die full of hope and manly trust. Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield. Another hand thes: andard wave. Till from the trumpet's mouth is peal'd The blast of triumph o'er thy grave. GUERILLAS IN TENNESSE.

The following paragraph from the Nashwille Press and Times of the 13th shows that the spirit of lawlessness still exists, and vindicates the necessity of maintaining an armed force for the repression of violence.

LAWLESSNESS IN SUMNER. The condition of affairs in the wealthy county of Sumner, lying within a few miles of Nashville, is not at all a pleasant one to law abiding people. A band of out- large. laws, about twelve in number, are raiding at will up and down the country, under the lead, it is supposed, of a man named Hooper. These desperadoes have committed a number of murders and robberies. The citizens make no effort to kill or arrest them, being deterred either by secret triendship or terror. We are informed that these guerilias attend barn dauces and pic-nics in the county, and have as gay a time as Robin Hood ever enjoyed under the greenwood tree of the English forests in olden time. Some days ago Colonel Stokes, Union ! candidate for Congress, was in Huntsville, in Sumner county. Some five of Hooper's gang came to the hotel where he stopped, and walked back and forth, with their pistols belted around them. After swaggering about, they mounted their horses and rode off. The guerillas hate Stokes heartily, for he has given scores o them a hasty burial in his district. Let Union men reward him with their votes The sheriff of Sumner county reports that his deputies are atraid to serve, and decline to act, in consequence of the lawlessness existing, and the rebellious tempe. of the people. The sheriff says that h life is not safe in serving writs, and has applied to Governor Brownlow for protect tion and assistance. Summer county may have a cavalry visit before long.

A citizen named Myers, living two miles north of Gallatin, a quiet, peaceable man, was shot in his yard a few days ago at 1 o'clock at night. Three shots were fired at him, one of which proved fatal. remedy of the utmost severity will be applied to cases of such malignity. It alle for any community to hope that treasen will be telerated anywhere at this day. Men who resist the loyal authorities now deserve the gallows.
