EFFECT OF POLYGAMY.

Mr. Bowles, of the Springfield (Mass) following account of the Mormon women:) is that it is a grievous sorrow and burden: ! the glory he will grant me in his kingdom." church; and I have no doubt both husbands and wives alike often horestly ac . seek and submit to polygamy as really God's holy service, calculated to make saints of themselves and all associated with them in the future world. Still a good deal of human nature is visible, both among the men in embracing polygamy and in their wives in submitting to it. "Mr. Young's testimony on this point. is significant. Other signs are not wanting in the looks and character of the men; most often annointed in the holy bonds of \ matrimony, and in the well known disagreement of the waves and many fami lies. In some cases they live harmoni ously and lovingly together; oftener, i. would seem, they have separate parts o the same house, or even separate houses. The first wife is generally the recognized head of society, and usually assumes contempt for the others, regarding them as concubines, and not wives. But it is a dreadful state of society to any one of time feelings and true instincts; it robs married life of all its sweet sentiment and companionship; and while it degrades wo man, brutalizes man, teaching him to de spise and domineer over his wives, over all women. It breeds jealousy, distrust, and tempts to infidelity; but the police system of the church and the community is so strict and constant that it is claimed and believed the latter vice is very rare The effect upon the children cannot Lelp being debasing, however well they may be guarded and educated. But it is a chief failing, even a scandal to the Mormons, that plentifully as they are provi-
