SCENES AT SALT LAKE. Mr. Bowles, of the Springfield (Mass) Republican, who makes one of the party | from which we extract as follows:

This is Utah-these the Mormons. I do not marvel that they think they are a chosen people; that they have been blessed of God not only in the election of their home, which consists of the richest region in all the elements of a State Etween the Mississippi Valley and the Pacitic. shore, but in the great success that has attended their labors, and developed here the most grand and self sustaining indus try that the western half of our continent witnesses. Surely great worldly wisdom has presided ever their settlements and organizations; there have been tact and statesmanship in the leaders; there have been industry, frugality, and integrity in the people, or one could not witness such progress, such wealth, such varied triumple of industry and ingenuity and endurance as here present themselves.

THE FERIAR PIC Nic .- The Fenian Gazette, July 11. pic-nic was a success. There was a lack of sunshine, rain fell, and the elements did their worst to render the thing disagreeable, but it would not do. Jones' Woods was packed with visitors.

The Irisi boys were out in force. The Irish girl was full of joy. There was no fight or even quarrel. The Fenians show themselves to be earnest men. "Ireland for the Irish" is their motto, and consequently they have a sympathy with all "Mexican movements;" and other enterprises for freedom. The fact that no one! was hurt at the pic nic yesterday, argues well for the Irish character. Otherwise, they distinguished themselves in nothing.
