One of the most horrible tragedies ever recorded was exacted here this evening. resulting in the murder of Captain M. A Allen by H. B. Payne, and the wounding . of a citizen named Cechrane. The circumstances are as follows:--About one year ago Allen seduced Payne's wife. - ) Last winter Payne sued for and obtained a divorce from his wife, but swore would kill Allen. About six o'clock this evening Payre met Allen at No. 64 South College street, and immediately drew a revelver, firing three times, the first shot | cannot long remain as they are.' taking effect in Allen's shoulder.
